Court Clerk's Error Costs an Insurance

Company $:00.000. San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Owing to a court clerk's error, the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York, must pay Mrs. Nellie Phinney a judgment of $98,000 with interest and costs, making over $100,000. Such was the decision rendered by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in this city. The company refused to pay the life policy of Guy C. Phinney for $98,000 and suit was brought by the widow and judgment given, but the case was appealed.

R. M. Hopkins, clerk of the court at Washington, failed to properly indorse the writ of error filed with him. and therefore there is no official record showing that the writ was actually filed. The time allowed within which another appeal might be filed has expired, so the decision is final.

A 1900 QUESTION. The question agitating the college boys who have entered this fall is. 'What shall we call ourselves?" The freshmen of '96 will be graduated in 1900, and, following a long-honored custom of dropping the first two integers of the year, they should cal themselves the class of '00. But that is naught-naught, and means nothing. It is not to be thought of, they say spiritedly. Yet the long "1900" has a very odd sound, and, besides will be very hard to contrive a yell for. Even the girls' colleges are fretting over the question but can see no way out of the dilemma except the use of the full date-1900. At least it will be a compensation for the awkward designation to be graduated in so remarkable a year as is 1900, when the century date is to be altered, and the that has been in use for a hundred years must yield to "19." shall all make some odd slips of the pen before we can readily write off

Daniel Hedley. Burnt Down the Glencoe Grand Stands - Attempted Train Wrecking -

Brought to Jail Here. Daniel Hedley, of Newbury, was a mild-mannered young man last week, but he took a sudden turn for the worse on Sunday and became a terror to the community. His first pronounced act of insanity was to place a tie across the Grand Trunk rails at Newbury, but a freight shoved the obstruction aside. Healey then boarded a train for Glencoe in the afternoon. Arrived there, he walked straight to Recreation Park, where he race course is, and hid himself until it became dark. Then he built a quick fire under the grand stands. and jumping the fence, ran to the railway tracks to resume his trainwrecking. The stands were destroyed' by the blaze. It is charged that Hedley afterwards placed two ties and two steel rails on the Grand Trunk tracks in different places, between Glencoe and Newbury, but fortunately they were discovered by a section man or there might have been an accident. Constable Logan, of the G. T. R., arrested Hedley in the vicinity of Newbury. Hedley had made no effort to escape, and rather boasted of his exploits. He told how he had ignited the flames devoured them. The prisoner was brought to the city by Mr. Logan and remanded to jail for eight days by Squire Smyth. Mr. George Dobie, the owner of the grand stands, has laid two charges of arson against Hedley, and Detective Logan has preferred a charge of attempted train-Hedley is about 23 years of age, and lived with his relatives at Newbury. kind enough to send us from time to time favorable results which have accrued from their casual or continuous advertisements. Naturally, we are al-ways glad to receive such information.
