The deceased, who was a man of most amiable Christian character, had suffered patiently with rheumatism for more than twenty years. He had been in Edmonton little more than a year and was seriously ill for the past three months. He was a member of Grace Methodist Church. The funeral was delayed to await the arrival of Mr. Harry Chapman, of Winnipeg, and a brother of the deceased, resident in Portland, Ore.

A Sudden Death.
Mrs. Robert Allan, of 433 William street, received word Saturday from Earl Grey, Sask., telling of the sudden death of her bright little grandson, Albert Mann. The news was a shock to the family, as he left London a few weeks ago in perfect health. Mr. and Mrs. Mann are former residents of London, and have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

London in the West.
The Winnipeg Free Press of Friday says: C. B. Keenleyside, B. A., of London, went east last night after a stay of some weeks in Winnipeg and Western Canada. Mr. Keenleyside, who is a brother of T. C. Keenleyside, of this city, was engaged in newspaper work in Winnipeg up to about nineteen years ago, and since that he has been a student, a preacher, a teacher, an author, and he is now prospering in real estate, and other lines of business. He is greatly struck with the magnitude of the changes that have taken place here in recent years, and he feels very much at home in the west, where he continues to be a visitor from time to time.
