Winnipeg Travellers Get Chance to Study Hinterland

New Ontario's immense forest re-serves and seat of Provincial Colonization Scheme of Great Interest

The traveller nowadays wants something more than formal seat space, and the well-established service of the Canadian Northern to Western Canada affords ample opportunity for thought. The immense stands of merchantable timber the untold wealth in water power, and the great commercial and agricultural possibilities of Northern Ontario should be matters of common knowledge to Canadians. Modern trains of standard and tourist sleeping cars and coaches leave Toronto Union Station at 10.00 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, connecting at Winnipeg for all points in Western Canada.

For tickets, reservations, literature and information apply to F. B. Clarke, 416 Richmond street, London, or write R. L. Fairbairn, G. P. A., 68 King street E, Toronto.

stake for 2:17 trotters, the feature of C. A. Down. today's Grand Circuit card at North Randall, went to the Royal Knight, which previously had never won a race, Not only had he failed to win a race, but The Royal Knight has failed to capture a heat, notwithstanding he was made favorite for this event.

The second favorite to reward his backers was Bud Light, which took the 2:11 pace in straight heats from Dan Hedgewood. It was the easiest victory of the day.

Alma Forbes, third choice in the betting, had no trouble annexing the 2:13 trot from Ante Guy and Sis Bing.

From a racing standpoint, the 2:14 pace furnished the most thrills of the afternoon, the winner finally turning up in Margie Wreath, a rank outsider. In the first two heats she was a victim of poor racing luck. Maggie Wreath took the third heat by a nose from John A. Hal, but won the fourth easily. Randall, went to the Royal Knight,
