HAMILTON'S DRY SUNDAY THE LID WAS ON TIGHT

Penalties in County Court—Catastrophic Power Company Modifies Demands.

HAMILTON, Dec. 13.—(Special.)—This was the first Sunday in the history of the city. The recent activity of the commissioners apparently bore fruit for the lid was on tight. The blinds in all the bar rooms were pulled up and the lights turned on. There were no sentinels on duty. Inspector Burrell following amendments were reported that there was no business.

Mrs. Gilbert P. Williamson, 120 South James-street, died at night, and her funeral will be held at the funeral home of J. A. Freeman at 120 South James-street, on Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

A frame shed, occupied by Calvin Cooke at 387 Harkness-street, was destroyed by fire this afternoon. The authorities regard it as a case of incendiary. There was a small fire at the W. A. Freeman Co's premises, Ferguson-avenue and Jackson-street, Saturday afternoon.

The Ryerson Methodist Church was dedicated this morning by Rev. J. C. Spears, Brampton. Rev. J. T. Heslop, the pastor, took part in the service.

Sarah Harper was arrested Saturday night on the charge of being drunk, and when the police got her in the cells they dug up an old warrant charging her with the theft of a tablecloth.

In addition to sending Detective Huckle down for the charge of being drunk, Sinder handed out the following sentences: William Burkholder and John O'Reilly, fifteen months; William Cornell, Jas. Yaldon and Chas. Balrd, three months; Jos. Rogers, de-fined sentence.

Matthew Alexander chased James Rees and Irwin Ballantyne from Egertonville to Hamilton early Saturday morning, and had them arrested on the charge of stealing some harness from him.

A special session of the aldermen was called for Monday afternoon to meet the Street Railway Company, which has asked for the passage of its car barn by-law Monday evening. The company now modifies its demands, and says it will be satisfied with either Sanford-avenue or Wentworth-street for its right of way to the barns. It also wants a by-law put thru allowing it to re-construct its street railway with a devil strip five feet wide.

Commercial Travelers' certificates are to be had of Fred Johnson, 270-272, 600, Bank of Hamilton Building, Hamilton.

THE SENSIBLE GIFT.

In what fatherly love and thoughtful consideration, a man who is sensible, will find some superb overcoats at $25, and some really good ones at $35 and $45. Even the man who is accustomed to wearing $40 and $50 overcoats, with silk lining, will find the superlative meltons and weavers in the new styles, a most welcome addition to his wardrobe. The sensible gift is an article that the recipient will find useful at all times.

BOOTY PROVED TRAP.

Thos. McBrien Severely Hurt by Fall on Stone Glass.

With one eye destroyed and a score of deep cuts in the right side of his face, Thomas McBrien, 273 West Adelaide-street, is lying in St. Michael's Hospital, under arrest charged with shop breaking.

He and two other men were arrested at 10:30 yesterday morning by Police Sergeant Andy Allison, on the corner of Richmond and Sherbourne-streets. McBrien was bleeding profusely and was being dragged along by John Diamond and John Campbell. The latter had no hat and because of their unbecomingly bloody and accounts of McBrien's accident the sergeant arrested them.

A trail of blood in the snow led to the rear of Jones Bros' show case plant, 30 Sheppard-street, where, at the foot of a ladder leading into the building, a mass of broken glass covered with blood was discovered.

It is supposed that they were making off with a quantity of glass by way of the ladder and that McBrien, who was apparently intoxicated, fell head foremost on top of his booty. McBrien and Diamond had formerly been employed in the factory. All three live in the same address.
