in the Stables.

The horse show wound up its sessions at the Union Stock Yards last night, and it is safe to say that it has been the most successful gathering of breeders at a winter show. The building in which the show was held was not all that could be desired, nor was the hotel accommodation as efficient as some would desire, but, allowing for the fact that this year was an experiment, and that the Union stock Yards Co. are preparing to put up an arena and provide for hotel accommodation, the future of the present site is settled. were about 159, of which Clydesdales had 66, Canadian-bred Clydes and Saires 34, Shires 15, Hackneys 10, standard-breds 12, thorobreds 12, ponies 9 and heavydraughts 22.

The show of Clydesdale stallions was perhaps one of the best ever seen in Canada. Many breeders not formerly well-known over the province came out with extra good quality, while the amateur farmer felt that he stood a chance to compete as perhaps never

7. Smith & Richardson, Columbus, of Chinguacousy came to Toronto yesterday to interview the authorities above set out as to the construction of the proposed municipal telephone line in this progressive township.

What they want to know is, what is ed? Who owns the system when completed? Can the council turn the system over to a commission to operate

With this thirst for information these 3. A. G. Gormley, Unionville, Ont., gentlemen interviewed Hon. Mr. Duff, minister of agriculture, and Hon. Dr. 4. C. A. Towers, Riverbank, Ont., Reaume, minister of public works. The ministers informed them that no steps had yet been taken to set apart ma-chinery for this purpose, and referred chinery for this purpose, and referred them to the chairman of the Ontario Railway Board, on whom under clause 14, the onus of fixing the government standard is laid.

Thus this council, with a man-date from the people to go ahead with a municipal telephone plant, is for the moment at a standstill until the promised departmental assistance is forthcoming. In the meantime, the ministers who were interviewed by the farmer-councillors have promised to look into the matter. Mr. Sam. Charters, m. 1, 1906:

A resolution was passed making it necessary for owners of four cross to make a statutory declaration to accompany their applications. "Our records must be above reproach," said the president, "and we are going to see that no fraud can be committed."

In the re-election of the old board

In the re-election of the old board they have a good lot of men, but the feeling is growing strongly that the offices should be passed around to other breeders as there are just as good men outside who do not press their claims as are those who have been on the inside so long. HORSE BREEDERS MEET.

The annual meeting of the horse-breeders was held yesterday morning in the King Edward with President Wm. Smith in the chair. There was ona fair attendance.

Receipts for last year were $5830 which was practically all used up. The report of the executive recommended that further discussion of the plan for stallion inspection be arranged for by the minister of agriculture among the breeders of Canada.
