

to in this Home. He hoped that the little girls would be taught the various duties of domestic life in connection with household work.

The Resolution was adopted.

Resolution of thanks.—Mr. Wm. Gooderham moved a vote of thanks to the retiring Board of Management. The mover took occasion to speak of the blessedness of giving, and pointed out that it was a duty of every Christian to give to such a charity as the Home in proportion to his or her means. He added, amid applause, that he would be always willing to contribute his share towards paying off the mortgage debt.

Ald. Harvie, who seconded the motion, bore testimony to the improved appearance of the children since they had lived in their new quarters.

The motion was carried.

Rev. Mr. Ingles moved a vote of thanks to the Orangemen of Ontario and the many friends of the Home for their contributions during the year. Carried.

Mr. J. W. C. Fegan, of the Boys' Home, Southworth Street, London, England, gave a cheering account of the results of the work of taking care of supposed deserted children in the Homes in England.

A vote of thanks to the chairman concluded the proceedings.
