As to Style

THE Style of the "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe is proverbial. The time was when woman's feet were sacrificed to style. A stylish shoe was expected to be uncomfortable. But then came the "Dorothy Dodd" idea that Style should be one of the chief comforts in a woman's shoe. Simply by following Nature's lines of the feet, the "Dorothy Dodd" was made at once the most stylish as well as the most comfortable of shoes.

LATE LOCALS

Considerable interest is being taken in the contest for the Thorne cup this afternoon by local golf enthusiasts and the links will probably be thronged with followers of the royal game.

The annual inspection of the 62nd Regt. will be held this afternoon on the Barrack Square, Lieut. Col. Vidal acting as inspecting officer. This evening Col. Vidal will be entertained at the Union Club by the officers of the regiment.

St. John Globe: Mr. W. Frank Hatheway is practically in the field as a Conservative candidate for the vacant seat in the house of commons, although the party has not yet held the usual convention.

The marriage of Miss May Fitzpatrick, third daughter of Sir Charles and Lady Fitzpatrick, to Mr. Hill, of Ottawa, is announced to take place at Murray Bay, Que., today. Only intimate friends of the family are invited, among whom are Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier.

Marlborough Lodge, No. 207, Sons of England at a meeting held Thursday evening decided to start a campaign to fly the British flag. They are following the lead of the St. George's Society in the movement for the more general display of the national flag.

The Fairville firemen have been putting in considerable practice in the evenings of late for the contests to be held at Moncton next week, and it would not be surprising to their friends if they should get away with some of the biggest prizes. The St. John and Fairville teams leave for Moncton on Tuesday.

THE I. C. R. MOTOR CAR

Yesterday's Trial Trip Was Not an Unqualified Success.

The new I. C. R. motor car was given another trial trip yesterday with a trailer but as on the previous day, the load proved too much for the engine or the coal was not good as the trailer had to be dropped off at Rothesay. At one o'clock today another attempt will be made and the trials will be continued day by day until the desired result is attained.

WANTS MR. TURGEON

Editor Times:

Sir,—Now that the editor of the Transcript has volunteered to support Dr. Pugsley for minister of railways, I think it time, as an old Liberal, to say that that class of Liberals, such as our present governor, with Mr. Labillois, Mr. Richard, Dr. Pugsley, etc., have already received too much consideration, and if Sir Wilfrid thinks that old Liberals in New Brunswick are going to submit to it, he may be greatly mistaken. I, for one, look for a little gratitude on his part before he can take Dr. Pugsley in. Now, Mr. Turgeon has just claims as a member from this province. Everywhere where the Acadians have any influence they have supported the government. Westmorland, Kent, Gloucester, Restigouche, Northumberland and Madawaska. As for Mr. Carvell, how many counties from this province besides his own have supported the government? They are well known. As for Dr. Pugsley, where is his following? Can he even claim to win St. John? He will find, I think, plenty of old and young Liberals there who will resent his past actions.

I admire the position the St. John Times and Telegraph are taking, and hope that results will follow their undertaking as independent journals.

Thanking you for the space for these few remarks, I will subscribe myself,

OLD ACADIAN LIBERAL.

A FAMILY QUARREL

That possession is nine-tenths of the law was practically illustrated last night when David Corkery made a determined effort to gain admittance to his sister's house at 149 Paradise Row. After kicking at the door for several minutes he went away, vowing he would return with an axe. The women within became alarmed and sought the protection of the police and in five minutes, as many patrolmen had assembled to guard the door but David did not return. The ownership of the house is the subject of litigation.

A "TUNNEL" POST CARD

The people of Prince Edward Island are taking every means of keeping the "Tunnel Scheme" before the public. The latest is the "Tunnel Post Card,". On it is shown a view of the Strait, with Cape Tormentine, the proposed New Brunswick landing point, at one side, and Cape Traverse, the "Island" point, at the other, while the mouth of the tunnel at either end is also shown. By holding the card to the light, the completed tunnel with a train passing through is also seen. Below the picture are a couple of verses expressing the discouragements of the present, and the hopes of the future.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 10—During a heavy rain storm at Bolivar yesterday, a bolt of lightning killed Charles Hendrix, shocked Lloyd Kenyon and his son Kenneth, and killed a horse. The men were on a load of hay on Mr. Kenyon's farm.

Hall-Hague

A quiet wedding took place on Tuesday, at Saranac Lake, N. Y., when H. E. Hall, formerly of St. John, N. B., was united in marriage to Miss Agnes S. Hague, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hague, of Montreal. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. W. H. Larom, rector of St. Luke's church, Saranac Lake, N. Y.

Main street Baptist church—Sunday services 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. M. T. Gregg, the brilliant young preacher who occupied the pulpit of this church so acceptably last sabbath, will again occupy the pulpit at both services tomorrow. Morning subject "The Man with the axe," Evening, "The Unescapeable question."

DEATH OF A LADY WELL KNOWN HERE

Mrs. Wm. McLeod Passed Away Recently in Montana.

The following is taken from the Daily Missoulan of Missoula, Montana:—In view of the fact that the condition of Mrs. William McLeod had been reported as much improved Friday night, there was a shock in the news of her death, which reached this city soon after noon yesterday. The hopes of the friends of the family had been raised, and the sad intelligence of yesterday was doubly affecting on that account.

Yesterday morning the news that came from the McLeod ranch at Victor was less encouraging than the word that had come the night before. It was followed by another message that the patient was sinking, and in the early afternoon word was received that the end had come at 1.15 o'clock.

While Mrs. McLeod's residence in this state had been comparatively brief, she had made many warm friends, and was much admired and respected by all who learned to know her. She had been a resident of Montana more than 17 months. Her husband was the managing partner of the McLeod ranch near Victor, for a year before Mrs. McLeod came from her former home in New Brunswick to join him.

Mrs. McLeod received a warm welcome from the relatives whose home had been in Montana for many years, and it was not long before she had added many new ones to the list of old friends. There is sincere sorrow in Missoula and in the Bitter Root country over the death of this estimable woman.

Another paper says:—

The body of Mrs. William McLeod will be brought from Victor this morning on the Copper City local and will be taken from the train to the Methodist church where it will lie until two o'clock in the afternoon, when the funeral will be held at the church, with Rev. J. W. Tait officiating.

While the body lies in the church it will have as a guard a delegation from the local Odd Fellows. The pallbearers will be George Briggs, Fred T. Sterling, Walter Wiles, John M. Price, Charles F. Dorman and Kenneth Ross.

There have been many expressions of sympathy for the family and relatives of Mrs. McLeod. She was a woman who was highly esteemed and she was beloved by all those who knew her well. Her death is deeply deplored in her home neighborhood and in this city, where she had made many friends during her residence in Montana.

Burial will be in the Valley cemetery. There will be a large attendance of friends from the city and there will be many of the friends of the family who will come down the valley for the funeral.

The Mrs. McLeod mentioned in the above was the wife of Wm. McLeod, formerly of Millstream, Kings County, a brother of S. A. McLeod, of Sussex, formerly of this city.

Rev. Mr. Tait, who performed the funeral ceremony is a native of Chatham, N. B., and was ordained at Sackville. The pallbearers for the most part are former New Brunswickers, Charles F. Dorman being a son of Fred Dorman of this city.
