DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS
In the Hit of the Hour
"IN AGAIN, OUT AGAIN"

A TYPICAL FAIRBANKS PICTURE. "In Again-Out Again" presents the smiling "Doug" at his best in a subject of rapid-fire theme and hundreds of hearty laughs. Never before has the athletic one had a better opportunity to give his admirers so much of his inimitable self and various surprises as in store for his many friends who will visit the Imperial theatre. Supported by Arline Pretty, the popular screen actress and an equally efficient cast including Arnold Lucy, Helen Greene, Homer Hunt, Walter Walker, Albert Parker, "Bull" Montana and others of similar popularity "Doug" is given capable assistance in the presentation of the plot, which displays a satire of unusual humor.

St. Peter's League
The Shamrocks defeated the Thistles in St. Peter's League fixture last evening by a score of 8 to 4. The Thistles presented a weak line-up, which accounted for their poor showing. The Shamrocks are now leading the league by a small margin. Owing to the heavy shower last evening the ball was wet and slippery and as a result many errors were chalked up against players on both teams. A feature of the game was a long drive to deep centre by Johnny McIntyre, popular young catcher of the winners. The box score of the game follows:

Jess Willard
Is Very Wealthy

Said to be Worth $500,000—Made This Fortune Since Defeating Johnson

New York, July 5—Jess Willard, one-time cowpuncher, according to tradition and present world's champion heavyweight and circus owner, may also be billed now as a capitalist. At least Jess has climbed into the circle of plutocrats, if the statement of Tom Jones, late pugilistic chaperaone to the Pottawatomie mastodon, is to be accepted. Of course severance of connections with Willard and contemplated legal action for financial redress may play its part in Jones' statement.

However, Tom blew into Chicago, and in passing the time of day deposited as follows: "Willard is worth between $600,000 and $800,000 today. Of that amount about $425,000 is stored away in cold cash on deposit in Chicago banks. One bank on the loop carries $90,000 in Willard's name, and another has $60,000. There is still a third neighborhood bank near where Jess lives that carries a healthy check account. All of this has been salted away since Jess slapped the pugilistic crown from the ebony dome of Jack Johnson down in Havana on April 5, 1915. "Things have been breaking pretty
