8,000 Young Red Cross Members Work For Fellows In Province; Supervisor Tells of Journey

"I serve" is the motto of the Junior Red Cross and very nobly are the 8,000 Juniors of New Brunswick serving those less fortunate children of the province who are in need of remedial care.

Miss Jessie L. Lawson, Junior Red Cross supervisor, who has just returned from visiting several provincial centres in the interests of Junior work, spoke yesterday of a number of the cases of handicapped children for whom the Juniors are providing care and with whom she was in touch during her recent trip. While in Woodstock she had taken up the case of Wilfred, the four-year-old boy who had been listed for treatment at the time the provincial survey was made by the Junior Red Cross with the co-operation of the Rotary Club and the Department of Education. The family had been deserted by the mother and Wilfred was one of four or five children. The father was endeavoring to be both father and mother but Wilfred had physical handicaps and when first located was a pitiful case indeed. He could not walk or talk or feed himself. He was taken to the Woodstock Hospital about the middle of September, where he had his tonsils and adenoids removed and underwent special treatment.

A marvellous improvement was effected and he was able to walk, to talk a little and to feed himself. He has been transferred to the General Public Hospital in Saint John and efforts are to be made to find a home where he can have personal care and supervision for some little while longer.

AT ST. LEONARD

At St. Leonard, Miss Lawson looked upon another pitiful case, little Geraldine, a four-year-old child, who was badly hurt last April but as she lived remote from doctors and medical care she had received no proper care. The unhealed sores on her back and chest were terrible to look at. A big scar on her face was twisting it out of shape and a raw ulcer under her arm had been so painful that through holding her arm away from the sore spot the skin of the upper arm had grown on the chest. The little girl was brought to St. Leonard because the Red Cross after several days of treatment she already showed great improvement. It would be some time before she would be fully recovered, however. But she, too, was receiving care through the Junior Red Cross fund.

At Fredericton, Miss Lawson arranged for a special eye clinic at which ten children from the Blind Children's Association meeting which was to have been held in the Coburg street kindergarten at 8 o'clock was postponed until today at the same hour and place.

St. Vincent's Alumnae meeting which was to have been held in the Alumnae rooms at 8:15 was postponed until Monday of next week. Brunswick Chapter, I. O. D. E. meeting which was to have been held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Martinson at 8 p.m. was postponed until today. Loyalty Chapter, I. O. D. E. was to have met last evening at the home of Mrs. George McAvilly, Orange street, and will hold its meeting this evening instead. Royal Arms Chapter, I. O. D. E. meeting which was to have taken place last evening at the home of Mrs. T. H. Carter, was postponed until this evening. Seven Seas Chapter, of the I. O. D. E. planned to meet last night at the residence of Miss Marie Hamilton, Princess street, but because of the storm arranged to postpone until a later date to be announced shortly.

The East End Community Club meeting, called for last evening, was also postponed and no announcement of the date on which it would convene was made.

Women's Daintiness

Under the most trying hygienic handicap now known. NEW way offers true protection—discards like tissue.

LIGHT frocks, sheerest gowns... wear them now with any time, anywhere, without a moment's doubt or fear!

The uncertainty and insecurity of the old-time "sanitary pad" has been ended.

Most women now use "KOTEX"—a new and remarkable way. Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads. Disposable, thus ending ALL danger of offending.

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

Obtainable at all drug and department stores, simply by saying "KOTEX." You ask for it without hesitancy.

Costs only a few cents. Proves old ways a needless risk. Try it in package. In fairness to yourself, try it.

Social Notes

Among the outstanding brilliant social events of the season in Montreal was the ball given by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. O'Brien at the Windsor Hotel, Friday evening, in honor of their debutante daughter, Miss Patricia O'Brien. The guests were received at the entrance of the ballroom by Mrs. O'Brien, who was wearing a deep blue draped velvet, trimmed with rhinestones, and by Miss O'Brien, who wore pink chiffon, embroidered in sequins with a trail of rhinestones, carrying a sheaf of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The ball, which was a very successful gathering of the elite of Montreal, was largely attended, seven hundred and fifty guests being invited. Among those attending the ball, who are well-known in Saint John were: Sir Charles and Lady Gordon, the latter wearing an orchid chiffon gown with sequin trimmings; Mrs. Frank McKenna, of Spencer Wood, Quebec, wearing an imported gown of white jersey silk embroidered in white wool in a day design with rhinestone and pearl centers, and two long streamers of rhinestones fell from the shoulders; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart MacTier, Sir Arthur Currie and Lady Currie, Miss E. C. Moore, the latter wearing a flesh colored chiffon with faded skirt edged with green tulle; Mrs. Donald F. Angus, the latter wearing a flesh colored chiffon with faded skirt edged with green tulle; Mrs. Phyllis Barker, debutante, in cream lace over a tulle dress; Miss Dorothy Benson, wearing a French model of pink beaded gorette; with pink tulle over a tulle dress; Miss Margaret Morgan, debutante, wearing midnight blue velvet embroidered in silver; Miss Peggy Palmer, wearing apricot gorette beaded in silver crystals and apricot beads; Miss Valerie Jones, in petalua colored gorette embroidered with beads; Miss Barbara Richardson, Miss Ruth Cowans, Miss Gertrude Dick, in white gorette with sequin trimmings; Miss Heather McFarlane, debutante, wearing a gown of gold tulle over a tulle dress with large bow at the back; Miss Ethel Lamplough, debutante, wearing a gown of gold tulle over a tulle dress with large bow at the back; and Miss Ethel Lamplough, debutante, wearing a gown of gold tulle over a tulle dress with large bow at the back.

Storm Is Cause of Many Meetings Being Postponed

The stormy weather yesterday caused the postponement of the great majority of the meetings called for that day. The Free Kindergarten Association meeting which was to have been held in the Coburg street kindergarten at 8 o'clock was postponed until today at the same hour and place.

St. Vincent's Alumnae meeting which was to have been held in the Alumnae rooms at 8:15 was postponed until Monday of next week. Brunswick Chapter, I. O. D. E. meeting which was to have been held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Martinson at 8 p.m. was postponed until today. Loyalty Chapter, I. O. D. E. was to have met last evening at the home of Mrs. George McAvilly, Orange street, and will hold its meeting this evening instead. Royal Arms Chapter, I. O. D. E. meeting which was to have taken place last evening at the home of Mrs. T. H. Carter, was postponed until this evening. Seven Seas Chapter, of the I. O. D. E. planned to meet last night at the residence of Miss Marie Hamilton, Princess street, but because of the storm arranged to postpone until a later date to be announced shortly.

The East End Community Club meeting, called for last evening, was also postponed and no announcement of the date on which it would convene was made.

Sussex Ladies Vote To Continue Work of Women's Institute

SUSSEX, Dec. 6.—At a meeting of the ladies of this town held during the week-end in Trinity Hall, it was the opinion of those present that, considering the wide field reached by the Women's Institute, which is established in practically every centre, it would be only to embarrass the local branch, in favor of any other women's society. A resolution was therefore unanimously passed that the present organization be continued and that every effort be made to increase the membership and that matters pertaining to reorganization be deferred to the next regular meeting, which will be held on the second Friday in January.

The meeting was held to decide the question of what women's organization would best serve the interests and welfare of the town. The meeting was called by the president of the Women's Institute, Mrs. Henry Colpitts, who explained the object of the meeting and asked for an expression of opinion as to the desirability of continuing the Women's Institute or promoting some other organization to take its place.

Coldbrook Women's Auxiliary Elects

The election of officers for the ensuing year of the W. A. of St. Bartholomew's church, Coldbrook, resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Elizabeth Broom; vice-president, Mrs. Callahan; second vice-president, Mrs. Charles Raycroft; treasurer, Mrs. Seifridge; secretary, Mrs. G. H. Simpson. This W. A. meets every Wednesday evening in the church at Coldbrook and once a month has a social evening at the members' homes in rotation.

PEARL FASTENINGS

Pearl buckles have returned to favor and serve as fasteners for jersey and velvet frocks, and sometimes on the more fragile fabrics like chiffon.

BLACKHEADS

Blackheads are not a new discovery and have been known for centuries. They are caused by the accumulation of dirt and oil in the pores of the skin. A simple and sure way to remove blackheads is by using a special cream.

Mother of Portland United Church Minister Observes Her Ninety-Sixth Birthday

SACKVILLE, Dec. 6.—Mrs. Cyrus N. Goodwin, Sackville's oldest citizen, recently celebrated her 96th birthday. Despite the fact that she is nearing the century mark, the aged lady is very bright and alert mentally and thoroughly enjoys social chat with the many friends who call to see her. Until she was 85 years of age, she was able to be around and assist in household duties, but unfortunately she has been bedridden for the past eleven years as the result of a fall.

She takes her physical handicap philosophically, judging by the cheerful smiles with which she greets visitors. Her memory is exceptionally clear and she takes pleasure in relating reminiscences of the old days.

NATIVE OF BAYSIDE

Mrs. Goodwin, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Stebbings, Sackville, is a daughter of the late William F. and Annie Maria Wells, of Bayside, N. B. She was born in Bayside, Nov. 16, 1830. Her parents moved to Bayfield when she was five years of age, and she lived on the homestead there until June 3, 1888, when she became the wife of the late Cyrus N. Goodwin, of Bayside. Her husband died in 1892, and afterwards she lived with her son, Leonard L. Goodwin, first at point de Bute, and later at Halifax, N. S. She came to Sackville some years ago and has since resided with her daughter, Mrs. Stebbings (widow of the late Rev. Thomas Stebbings). Mrs. Goodwin is the last of a family of twelve—six sons and six daughters.

STAINCH METHODIST.

She has always been a member of the Methodist church (now United church) and in her earlier days she was very active in all good work, being among the leaders of the church. Her father, the late Wm. F. Wells, helped in the erection of the first church at Bayfield, about ninety years ago. This building was replaced about 37 years ago. Mrs. Goodwin's daughter, Mrs. Thomas Stebbings and her husband, Rev. Thomas Stebbings, were at one time stationed on the Bayfield circuit.

SAINT JOHN MAN A SON.

Mrs. C. N. Goodwin had six children, five of whom are still living. The sons are: William I. Goodwin, of Vancouver, B. C., who kept a bookstore here about 14 years ago; Leonard L. Goodwin, retired merchant, Halifax, N. S.; Alexander H. Goodwin, dental surgeon, Yegreville, Alta.; and Rev. Harold A. Goodwin, pastor of Portland United church, Saint John, N. B. The daughters are: Mrs. Thomas Stebbings, Sackville, and Augusta Caroline Stebbings (deceased). There are also twelve grandchildren and three great grandchildren living.

Mrs. George Perry Again Chosen By Martello Temple

Martello Temple, No. 25, Pythian Sisters, last night re-elected as most excellent chief, Mrs. George Perry, when officers for the ensuing year were chosen. The meeting was fairly well attended in spite of the inclemency of the weather. Mrs. Perry presided and during the evening Mrs. Emma Levers, on behalf of the temple, presented Harvey Willa, a brother knight and an honorary member of Martello Temple, a knight's gold ring bearing the emblem of the Doherty. The gift was a mark of appreciation of his services to the temple. He expressed his thanks in a few words.

After routine business had been dealt with, the election of officers was carried out and resulted as follows: M. E. C. Mrs. George Perry; excellent junior, Mrs. Anna Perry; excellent senior, Mrs. Milly Moore; mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. Vida Barlow; mistress of finance, Mrs. Emma Edwards; protector, Mrs. Mary Lovel; guard, Mrs. Alice Wood; grand representatives, Mrs. George Perry and Mrs. Maude Dykeman; alternates, Mrs. Emma Levers and Mrs. Nancy Warner; assistant pianist, Mrs. Mary MacFarlane; installing officer, Mrs. Emma Levers.

Judge Arsenault Will Lecture Here

Arrangements for the forthcoming lecture by Judge Arsenault, of Charlottetown, were made at the meeting of the Saint John north sub-division of the Catholic Women's League held last night in the society's rooms, Douglas avenue. Miss Minnie Durick, president, was in the chair and there was a large attendance considering the unfavorable weather. Routine business also was taken up and the monthly reports submitted were very gratifying. Judge Arsenault will arrive in Saint John on Saturday and will give his address under the auspices of the league on Sunday evening in St. Peter's church hall.

Give a gift that says "Bon Voyage" for all of Life's cruise

YES, it is easy to discharge a gift obligation lightly . . . and often quickly. But the fairest flowers wilt, and the best books are soon discarded, and the most tempting candies and fruits are all too quickly gone.

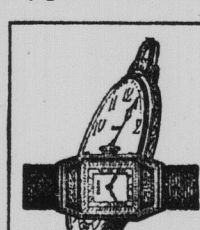

Far wiser is he who chooses gifts more lasting, gifts that daily brighten the lonely hours of the traveler in foreign lands, gifts that ever revive fond memories in the hearts of those both far away and close at hand.

Your jeweler specializes in gifts of this sort. Gifts constant and imperishable, like the good-will they betoken, gifts useful and practical, like the true friendship they symbolize . . . gifts that serve . . . gifts that last as does the affection that prompts them.

If your wish is for a gift particularly appropriate for the traveler, your jeweler can show you diaries, passport cases, bill folds and stationery portfolios in the finest leather, silver trimmed.

Or those other expressions of the true and loyal heart—signet rings, gold and silver pen knives, pendants and bracelets, or that most reliable of all traveling companions—an Elgin watch.

So, if you would say "Bon Voyage" for all of life's cruise, say it with a sincerity that will echo down through the corridors of the years—say it with gifts from your jeweler's precious store . . . with "gifts that last."
