Defendant in Assault Case Makes Time in Court.

Louis Daley appeared in the police court this morning on a charge of assaulting a young woman. The plaintiff testified that she was walking down Erin street yesterday in company with a boy when the defendant accosted her and after warning her to stop making remarks about him struck her on the mouth and knocked her down. The defendant denied that he struck her, saying that he had merely shoved her and she tripped over his foot. Magistrate Ritchie started to comment on the case, but was interrupted by the defendant who said he did not need his sympathy and was not looking for any charity. He became quite demonstrative and was ordered taken below and placed in a cell.

WILL SOUND MUCH LIKE WINE LIST

Names of German Telephone Exchanges to be Leased to Makers of Much Advertised Products.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—Germany is turning in every direction for money to pay her debts, but nothing more ingenious has yet been devised by the government than the new system of naming telephone exchanges, by which it is expected the use of the telephone will sound like the reading of a wine list.

It has been announced that rights to the names of the exchanges will be leased to makers of much advertised products, and it is freely predicted that liquor manufacturers will take most of them. If this proves to be the case, it will be as if a Canadian asked for Haig & Haig 1234.

This financial innovation is a continuation of a policy in vogue for some time at the post office, where the purchaser of stamps, or the individual mailing letters, has been urged to eat so and so's chocolates or use who is it's soap.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Palmer have returned home after a wedding tour through the province. They will reside at 26 Harrison street.

One man had to be called from the body of the court to complete the jury in the case of Thomas James Spellman, charged with acting together with Edward O'Brien and murdering Albert Norris in this city on September 8. The entire panel of fifty-one names was called, but only eleven jurors were needed. The sheriff then called upon Harold Stubbs, and he was sworn to complete the jury.

The case came before Judge Barry in the circuit court. Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., conducted the prosecution, and D. Mullin, K. C., and G. Earle Logan appeared for the accused. Spellman pleaded not guilty.

After the first twenty-one names had been called and only four jurors selected, Mr. Mullin objected to the calling of the other names on the list, claiming that it was a separate panel and could not be summoned until after the original panel had been exhausted. The judge, however, ruled that as the whole fifty-one names had been submitted before the court sat, it was in order to continue the selection from them.

After the prisoner was arraigned the indictment was read over to him and he pleaded not guilty.

Jury Sworn.

The entire panel of fifty names was called and only eleven jurors were secured. Fourteen were challenged by the defence, as follows:—George Bishop, A. Chipman Ritchie, Marshall D. Austin, Horace G. Black, John A. Driscoll, William W. Hawker, Ralph G. Dykeman, Robert E. Armstrong, James Boyle, Walter A. Adams, W. Edgar Campbell, Charles D. Hoyt, William S. Clawson and D. Arnold Fox.

The two latter were challenged for cause. S. C. Webb and G. W. Wilder, Hattaway, two jurors already sworn, were appointed by the judge to act as triers and after hearing the evidence of Messrs. Clawson and Fox, decided that they were not suitable to serve. Mr. Clawson said he had expressed his conclusions previously to Mr. Logan, counsel for the defence. Mr. Fox testified that he had served on the coroner's jury, which brought in a verdict implicating the prisoner.

Wilfred M. Darlow was challenged by the crown prosecutor.

Thirteen were reported absent and Judge Barry imposed a fine of $10 on each unless they could show good cause for absence. James S. March, Charles J. Clayton, George A. Stackhouse, T. Carleton Olive, George B. Kelly, Gilbert D. Davidson, J. Fred Emery, Joseph Gilbert, Harry A. B. Pales, Robert M. Barthe, Robert B. Amulian, William E. Anderson and Edward S. Farren.

Nine were excused for various reasons:—A. G. Gregory, C. B. Allan, J. L. Collins, J. L. Cambridge, William Scott, Henry Crawford, George K. Britton, F. P. C. Gregory and J. W. Armstrong.

The following eleven were sworn in as jurors:—Stanley C. Webb, G. Whitlock, Hattaway, Herbert Nies, Frederick C. Wesley, DeWitt Cairns, William T. Jenkins, Joseph S. Grey, William Dykeman, Albert W. Black, Robert M. Thorne and George E. Crowe. Harold Stubbs was summoned from the body of the court by the sheriff and sworn in as the twelfth juror.

The court then adjourned to allow Mr. Mullin, senior counsel for the accused, to attend to another matter outside the court.

Judge Barry here announced that on the conclusion of this case the court would adjourn until Tuesday, November 1, at 10 a. m. He warned all the jurors to be present at that time unless the attorney-general decided to call for a new panel in a case which had come before the court and in which there was a mistrial. The original panel of twenty-one names, however, would be required to attend on that date in any event.

Evidence Taken.

After Mr. Mullin's return, the charge was read to the jury and Dr. Wallace outlined the case for the prosecution. He called Henry W. Norris, but he was reported absent.

Mrs. Alma Smith, 185 Erin street, told of seeing three men going into the Ryan alley, saw an object fall heavily and saw two men come out. Later some one lighted a match and she saw it was a man who was lying in the alley. To Mr. Smith, the witness said she did not notice in what order they went into the alley. She saw the three men in the alley. The two who came out, she reported, one crossing the street and the other standing at the entrance to the alley. They joined again and ran up Erin street.

She said she did not attach importance to seeing the man fall until the crowd began to gather. It was some two or three days afterwards that she spoke to one of the detectives about the matter.

Mr. Mullin tested the witness' estimate of the time by asking her to say when five minutes had passed. She announced time was up when four minutes had passed by Mr. Mullin's watch.

To Dr. Wallace, Mrs. Smith said one man was taller than the other.

Mrs. Margaret Moore, 128 Erin street, told of three men coming to the street door. She said Spellman came up three flights to her door and asked for Fred Keefe, and the three disappeared around the corner of the house.

To Mr. Mullin, the witness said that Spellman was the only one who was up stairs. Mr. Keefe, she said, lived in the house but she could not say what his business was; she did not know if he was in the boot-legging business.

To the judge she said this happened between 8:30 and 8:45. She did not know Spellman before. He did not look as if he was drinking.

At this point recess was taken until 2:30, when the case was resumed.
