NORTHCLIFFE AGAIN WARS ON PREMIER

Papers Blame Lloyd George for Anglo-French Crisis

Gardiner to His Defense—Writes in Daily News That Paris Policy Has Failed and It is Time to Revive the Washington Policy.

(Special Cable to the New York Times.)

London, April 13—The Northcliffe press this morning returns to the attack on Lloyd George over the Anglo-French misunderstanding in the most unflattering language ever used against him.

The London Times attributes this "crisis of the first magnitude in Anglo-French relations" entirely to "the momentous blunder" of the prime minister, whom it accuses of jeopardizing deliberately "the valid guarantee for the maintenance of the peace of the world which his irresponsible conduct at the peace conference had left comparatively intact."

It says that the prime minister's policy to be publicly revealed had been adopted THERE WILL BE NO MORE CHESTNUT.

SHORT OF BREATH Could Hardly Walk Without Resting

When you go to a physician to be examined for any heart trouble one of the first questions he asks is: "Are you short of breath?"

Now, when the heart becomes affected there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering
