Canadian Tournament.

Ottawa, July 2.—Under fair weather conditions and with a record attendance of competitors representing practically every club of importance in Canada, the seventh annual tournament of the Royal Canadian Golf Association was inaugurated Saturday morning at the links of the Ottawa Club, Aylmer road.

The handicap prize went to Mr. Yule, the youthful representative of the Royal Montreal Golf Club. Seventy-four players participated, including nearly all of those who will fight it out tomorrow for the Canadian amateur championship.

W. Yule, winner of the first prize in the handicap event, was allowed a handicap of 13 strokes. He negotiated the eighteen hole course in 86, which brought his net score to 73. Second prize was carried off by Montague Powell, an Ottawa player, who turned in a card of 88, which with his handicap of 14, made his net score 74, just one stroke more than Yule, the winner. G. F. Ross, Ottawa, was third, with a net of 78, while P. J. Baskerville, Ottawa, and J. T. Novinger, Outremont (Montreal), tied for fourth and fifth, each having 78. Mr. Moss also carried off the prize for the best gross score, he showing a card of 82, which is decidedly creditable for the eighteen hole course.

THE UNIQUE.

Little more than a week ago London witnessed the coronation of King George and Queen Mary. There were more than 7,000 representatives from all nations of the earth, peers and peeresses, Indian potentates and the rulers of the world. Today through the medium of modern science the great ceremonial may be seen by visiting the Unique Theatre. This house has presented a film of the great event. It is presented for the first time Saturday and was found to portray all the features in excellent photography. It explains the grand events leading up to and the ceremony itself with the procession through London on the day following. The subject will be shown today, Tuesday and Wednesday, in order to accommodate the large crowds. The doors will be open at 6:15 sharp. Parents are asked to send the children to the matinees, where they will be well looked after. Mr. Malcolm in songs and three other subjects make up the rest of the programme.

THE LYRIC.

The fact that the pictures of the coronation ceremonies were taken in the Lyric Theatre Saturday is taken as proof that this house is right up to the minute in the every thing. The pictures of the city on the noon train Saturday, being developed while crossing to New York from London. The views are excellent and are almost as good as being in London, while the ceremony was in progress. They show the procession to the Lyric Theatre today will be the Scotch comedians, Court and Don in an irresistibly funny sketch.

THE STAR.

In reading the Star advertisement for tonight and tomorrow night, its patrons are asked to notice a picture and song by the same title, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," is a drama by the Edison Company, having been released last April, and since that time has become a very popular production. The cast is made up of three of Edison's leading players, and the drama carries out the message of the old favorite song (by the same name) and tells a simple story with the same fundamental emotion underlying it. Miss Newington will sing the song which the picture is shown on the screen. "Though Your Sins Be As Scarlet" is a sermon in pictures that awakens the realization of higher possibilities, and teaches a lesson that makes a lasting impression for good. This picture is a handsome photographic production by the Vitagraph Company. "The Faithful Indian" is an Essanay drama which is expected to prove of great interest. To conclude the programme there will be a comedy by the Edison Company, "A Card of Introduction."

GEM.

The greatest spectacle of the year, the festivities of the coronation, are to be shown at the Gem Theatre today. The pictures are said to be very realistic and truly representative of the scenes which accompanied the coronation activities in London. Patrons of the Gem will be given a chance to see them this afternoon and tonight.

Besides these great pictures, there will be a splendid dramatic story, "The Baggage Coach Ahead," presented in artistic fashion by the Edison Co. The story is founded on the noted song of many years ago, and this will be sung by Miss Allan during the presentation of the film. The drama is sweet, tender, and touching, with a warning vein of heart interest running throughout. In addition to this there are two crisp bright comedies by the Biograph

THE LATE JOHN BYERS

The sudden death of John Byers, which occurred recently at Bailey, N. B., was learned with great regret in his extended circle of relatives and friends. An illness of only two days' duration, was caused by poisoning from eating canned corn. Mr. Byers was the son of the late Mr. Byers. He was born at Mill Settlement about fifty years ago. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Charles and Banford, of Millville, and David of Boston—and three sisters—Mrs. David Macneken, of Alberton, Mrs. Howe, of French Rivier, and Mrs. Smith Anderson. He also survived by his wife and seven children. The funeral was held on Friday. The sermon was preached by Rev. A. McLeod, of Fredericton Junction. Representatives of the Orange order conducted the burial service. Interment was in the Blissville cemetery.
