"What's that?" ejaculated the unhappy man, with an expression of 'indifferently concealed apprehension on his face.

"A whalebone, two sticks of brown braid—here's a sample—a spool of basting cotton and a yard of twill. You can get them when you go down, and bring them home with you to-night."

He bolted away at once, not even pausing to shut the door. The spectacle as he rushed through the streets, with no thought but of his errand, would make Mrs. Livermore less concerned than she is about "What to do with our girls." He skipped into the store and cried to the clerk—

"One brown whalebone [r] ejaculated the clerk, in astonishment.

The man across the street stopped to ask if there was no brown whalebone, and the hesitation ruined him. The rest of the articles, excepting the twill, of which he had forgotten the quantity, fell back from the position he had them into a chaotic mass.

With an exclamation of pain and anger, he galloped back to the house for a renewal of the particulars.
