ENCOURAGE TOURIST TRAVEL.

Meeting of Citizens and Bailway and Steamship Men.

o Increase Tourist Travel in this

The meeting called for Thursday by W. S. Fisher, president of the Board of Trade, of those interested in the furthering of tourist travel to St. John and the province was largely attended. Among those present W. H. Thorne, C. E. Laechler of the L. S. S. Co., Thos. Lee, A. A. Stockson, S. D. Scott, A. H. Notman and Mr. Surherland of the C. R. R. E. M. Tree, W. F. Hatheway, A. O. order with a simple statement of the object of the gathering, which he ex-plained was to formulate an organto induce increased tourist travel not only to the city, but to the province as well. He first called attention to be taken to advertise our country and how it was to be brought about. He pointed to the Nova Scotia travel. the key note of which was the Annapolis valley, and though we might adopt the St. John river as a special feature of attraction. As to the facilities here to handle travel, the present hotel accommodation was sufficient for the present travel, and that with increased travel, increased accommodation would fellow naturally. A good man with a proper amount of advertising matter would be one step in the right direction. Some years ago the Portland, Me., board of trade and citizens generally took hold of the matter there and a communication from them referred to their work the circulation of an enormous amount of descriptive literature and continually keeping at it. This resulted, Mr. Fisher sail, in the increasing of the Maine tourist travel to seven or eight millions a year. This was an example of organized work. One great point was what enjoyment and attractions could be offered after tourists were 'nduced to come here so that they would come again and bring their friends. The many natural advantages possessed by St. John could all be utilized by proper local drams

The chairman then read a telegram from P. Gifkins, general passenger agent of the D. A. railway, regretting his inability to be present, and heartily concurring with the idea of organization in this endeavor. A letter from Mr. Evans of the

Reid of Marysville, youngest son of Robert Reid of Edmunston, and brother of Mrs. Alexander Gibson, jr., of Marysville. The ceremony was performe by the Rev. Agustus Freeman. The bride looked charming, attired in a very fetching gown of pale blue shot silk, trimmed with lace and ribbons, orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of cream roses. She was attended by the Misses Eliza and Laura Bridges, cousins of the bride, who looked their prettiest—attired in suits of blue, trimmed with cream silk and lace, carrying bouquets of pink roses. Mamie, the sweet and pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mayor Gibson, acting as maid of honor, dressed in white surah silk, carrying a basket of roses, was the pleasing feature of the occasion. The bridegroom was ably supported by Thomas B. Bridges, brother of the bride. After the cere-mony the large number of guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding break-fast, provided for the occasion, above which the happy couple, escorted by a host of friends, drove to Mc-Gowan's steamer David Weston for St. John, thence to Grand Falls and Edmundston, where they will spend the honey-moon. On their return they will reside at Marysville. Many beautiful and costly presents attested to the bride's popularity with a large circle of relatives and friends. The present to the bride was a dis
