 steamer Margaret Jones, Captain Williams, in ballast, from Malta for Delaware Breakwater, for orders, stranded at 8 o'clock this morning directly opposite the Isle of Wight life saving station near Ocean City, Md. She was GRAIN. ETC. immediately discovered by the life Oats (Ontario), car lots 0 34 savers, who manned their surf boat and went to her assistance. The steamer is well up on the beach, about 50 yards from low water mark. She is lying easy in a moderate sea and perfectly light. The captain and crew refused to leave the steamer. It will be necessary to lay heavy anchors and run large hawsers to the steamer and heave her off inch by inch into deeper water before the tugs can move her FLOUR, ETC. entirely clear, of the shore. The wrecking barge Lottie left the breakwater this evening with the necessary anchors and hawsers. It will no doubt take several fides to float the steamer. The Margaret Jones is owned by the Margaret Jones Steamship Co. of Cardiff. She is consigned to Peter Wright

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 25.—A difficulty has arisen between Germany and Turkey. The Ottoman government objects to Ger-many using Farsan Island, in the Red Sea, as a coaling station, and wishes to establish there a depot accessible to all the powers. Germany, however, insists that she will not abandon the island.
