NOVA SCOTIAN NURSE IS SECRETLY WED

Marine Officer and Old Companion the Lucky Man—Marriage Took Place in Boston.

(Boston Herald.;

Sweethearts during their school days, about 15 years ago in Canada, with an interval of 10 years when they did not hear from one another, finally meeting in Brookline quite by accident, Miss Margaret S. Bushing, a professional hospital nurse of Brookline, was secretly married the other day to Sinclair A. Corkum, an officer on a transatlantic steamship.

Friends of both as well as their relatives will be surprised to learn of their marriage, for it was the intention of the bride and groom to keep it a secret until the bride shall have finished her duties in the Brookline hospital, next June.

The marriage took place at the residence of the Rev. Charles Crane. They slipped quietly out of Brookline and unattended were made man and wife. BOSTON, Feb. 20.—At a meeting of and the next day the groom went Mrs. Corkum returned to the hospital the steamship agents in this city at board his ship to sail for Liverpool.
