

O.S. CROCKETT'S RECEIPTS STRONGLY CONDEMNED GOVERNMENT'S RECKLESSNESS

Public Debt Increased. It was shown also that the public debt had increased in the last two fiscal years...

A Serious State of Affairs. Mr. Crockett pointed to the further fact, that so serious had the situation become...

The G. T. P. Project. In connection also with the Grand Trunk Pacific project...

Another Blunder. Another important matter which was further exposed was the GOVERNMENT'S BLUNDERING IN CONNECTION WITH THE UNFORTUNATE QUEBEC BRIDGE...

Left to their Friends. Notwithstanding the assurance that the $1,000,000 subsidy was to be the maximum of assistance to be offered...

Left to their Friends. It is now announced that it will cost $1,000,000 to complete the bridge...

Left to their Friends. It is now announced that it will cost $1,000,000 to complete the bridge...

We Don't Realize. Mr. Crockett said that he did not think that the people of the Maritime Provinces fully realized the disastrous effects...

And Portland Profits. In the meantime the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway will have not the business for the United States coast...

The Opposition Efforts. In this connection Mr. Crockett referred to the efforts of the Opposition to take advantage of the Government's bill...

Investigation Refused. The session was also distinguished by the Government's continued refusal of investigation into the expenditure of the people's money...

Still Another Bungle. Another important matter in which the Government was laid open to the censure of the country was their bungling of the negotiations for the consummation of a treaty respecting the fisheries in international waters...

Means Much to New Brunswick. The former treaty is one which is a special interest to the people of New Brunswick...

Government Will Suffer For Mistake. He predicted that the Government would find this one of the most serious losses with which it will be confronted in New Brunswick when they next appeal to the electorate of the country.

The Central Railway Report. Referring to the debate on the Central Railway Commission report, Mr. Crockett said...

The Vicious Attack On Judge Landry. Mr. Crockett did not propose to comment upon them further, but he said he could not allow the occasion to pass without again referring to the vicious and shameful attack which was made upon the character of Mr. Justice Landry...

A Disgraceful Attack. Mr. Crockett asked if any more outrage could be perpetrated by the Liberal Government against any man, whether a judge or not...

Did Not Quote Evidence. If these were falsehoods, as Mr. Pugsley claimed, the only proof of that claim was to be found in the pages of the evidence...

STATEMENT IN HIS SPEECH WAS FALSE. It might be said, Mr. Crockett, that the political parties had attempted to coquet with Mr. Justice Landry for the reason that Mr. Justice Landry was recognized universally in this province as stronger than either of the parties in the Acadia constituencies...

An Odious Offence. There was reason to believe that Mr. Pugsley had already seen the tremendous blunder which he made when he entered upon this attack upon Mr. Justice Landry...

The McAvity Raft-Off. Mr. Crockett also referred briefly to the McAvity Raft-Off and to the manner in which Mr. Pugsley had made in the House when Mr. Pugsley's affidavit was read...

KING SWORN MASTER OF LABOR

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, June 2.—W. L. MacKenzie King, M.P., for North Waterloo...

Mon. Mr. Maxwell. Hon. Robert Maxwell also paid a warm tribute to Mr. Crockett as the rights of the Empire and the dominions which belong to it...

The Right Kind of Friend. "What is the use of a friend," said Sir Robert, "who will stand by you only when you are right?"...

Mutual Aid in Defence. Very important among the bonds of union was that of mutual aid in the defence of legitimate assertion of the rights of the Empire...

Mutual Council. It must be realized by the mother country that there was need of mutual council, as well as of mutual aid...

Other Speeches. Speeches by T. J. Carter, of Andover; A. Burns, of Albert Co.; C. H. Thomas, Wm. Lemont, B. C. Foster, ex-Warden Scott, and others followed...
