Local Council
Chose Mrs. McLellan

Nominee for Position on Hospital Board—Mrs. W. C. Good May be Factory Inspector—Council Will Request Appointment of Mrs. Flewelling as Food Inspector.

Mrs. J. Verner McLellan was nominated by the Local Council of Women as her recommendation to the Board of Hospital Commissioners at a well-attended meeting held yesterday morning in the Germain Street Institute. Mrs. E. Atherton Smith presided and several important matters came up for discussion.

A great deal of interest was taken in the matter of the appointment of a woman on the Board of Hospital Commissioners, as it is a measure which the Council has urged for many years. Mrs. A. W. Estey, the recording secretary, read the minutes of an executive meeting held on Saturday evening, at which the names of Mrs. R. Duncan Smith and Mrs. J. Verner McLellan had come up for appointment by the Council, one to be chosen for the vacancy on the Board in answer to a request sent to the Council by the Mayor and Commissioners. The executive endorsed the recommendation of Mrs. R. Duncan Smith. After the reading of these minutes, several other matters were disposed of, when Mrs. David McLellan asked if the general meeting was not to have a voice in the recommendation to be made, stating that the Council had worked for years for just such an opportunity. She went on to say that while she had no personal feeling in the matter, she felt that to appoint someone who had held a professional position in the Hospital was a mistake, and that Mrs. R. Duncan Smith had been president of the Hospital during the times when criticism of the institution had been made. In her opinion no one should be recommended who had any connection whatever with the Hospital.

Mrs. Smith said that she thought any recommendation made should be unanimous, and asked Mrs. A. C. Skelton to explain the circumstances of how she had appeared before the Council. Mrs. Skelton stated that she had gone entirely on her own initiative to speak to the Mayor, and found herself before a meeting of the Council at which she had been asked if the appointment of Mrs. R. Duncan Smith would be acceptable to the Local Council and to the Woman's Hospital Aid. She had stated that she thought it would be acceptable.

Nominations were made as follows: Mrs. R. Duncan Smith, Mrs. Verner McLellan, Mrs. J. Roy Travers. Mrs. Smith left the chair to say that she thought for the position a woman who was thoroughly qualified should be chosen, and that the fact that a woman had been a nurse only made her a more valuable worker on a Board. It would be honoring the nursing profession, which all would be delighted to do.

Mrs. J. Verner McLellan pointed out that both Mrs. E. Atherton Smith and Mrs. J. H. Frink are members of the Board of Commissioners of East St. John, and have been most efficient, while neither are trained nurses.

Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond also spoke along these lines. The President explained the aims of the Woman's Hospital Aid, and said that it stood for constructive work, never for destructive criticism. That they were not asked to name a member for this position, and no name had ever come before a general meeting.

In answer to a question as to why an executive meeting was held late Saturday evening, Mrs. Smith stated that the Aid executive meeting was held to settle details for the regular meeting on Thursday.

Mrs. Verner McLellan said she had been spoken to on the subject by a member of the Hospital board and one of the Commissioners.

The result of the election was announced as follows: Mrs. J. Verner McLellan, 20 votes; Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, 16 votes; Mrs. R. Duncan Smith, 12 votes. On motion, the vote was made unanimous.

Mrs. McLellan said that she had devoted her whole life to this work and was not taking an active part in any other society. If elected to the position of Commissioner, she would ask for the support of every member of the Local Council and the Woman's Hospital Aid, and would endeavor to the best of her ability to fulfil the duties.

A letter was read from F. Campbell, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council, asking that the Local Council recommend Mrs. W. C. Wood for the position of factory inspector.

A letter was read from Mrs. J. Edmund Flewelling withdrawing her name as a candidate for this position, and Mrs. Good explained that for some time she had been urged to stand for this appointment, but that knowing Mrs. Flewelling was the choice of the Council she had refrained from making any efforts to obtain the appointment. She was unanimously endorsed by the Council.

A resolution passed by the Executive asking that the position of food inspector, now held temporarily by Mrs. Edmund Flewelling, be sent to the Board of Health, was endorsed, with appreciation of Mrs. Flewelling's splendid work.

Mrs. Christie, County President of the W. C. T. U., was asked to confer with Mrs. Adam Shortt concerning a twenty-minute speaker on Prohibition at one of the sessions.

As the list of delegates, including the St. John members of Federated Societies, is a very long one, it was decided that presidents of Federated Societies, if unable to attend the reception given by the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pugsley, shall appoint a member of their society in their place. This in addition to the executive conveners and others.

At the reception at Mrs. Tennant's the reception committee will consist of Mrs. Sanford, National President; Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, President of the Local Council; Mrs. Wm. Pugsley, Mrs. David McLellan, Provincial Vice-President, and Mrs. Tennant. Vice-presidents and officials will act as social committee on this and succeeding occasions.

Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, convener of the musical committee, was asked if it would be possible to have the City Concert Band give one or more musical concerts in the Square during the sessions. Mrs. Wilson will report later on this.

W. H. Golding, of the Imperial Theatre, wrote extending to the visiting delegates, on behalf of the management of the Grumpy Company and the Imperial Theatre, an invitation for reservations at the first performance of the British play last evening. This offer was gratefully accepted.

The agenda of the National Council was discussed.

Local Council And National Council

A simple explanation of what the words Local Council of Women and National Council mean may be of assistance to those who have not as yet grasped the idea of this Dominion-wide organization.

At St. John the Local Council is a federation of thirty-two societies. Each society sends its quota of six delegates to the general meetings to vote, while members of all societies are eligible to attend the meetings. There are also a certain number of Standing Committees with local conveners.

The National Council is a federation of all Local Councils with its elected officers, provincial vice-presidents, and national conveners of Standing Committees. Six delegates from each Local Council are eligible to attend the National Council sessions, which are held annually, and endeavors are made to spread the interest as widely as possible by having the annual meetings in various parts of the Dominion. National officers, provincial vice-presidents, life members and conveners of National Standing Committees also attend these meetings, where reports of work accomplished are heard and resolutions passed regarding the betterment of the community or new activities to be undertaken.

Pleased Audience
At The Imperial

Grumpy Proved All That Was Claimed of it—Large Audience Delighted With Every Moment of the Production.

It is hardly possible to praise Grumpy which was the play presented by Mr. Edward Lewers and Mr. Frank Compton of England last evening at the Imperial Theatre, without seeming over-enthusiastic, and yet it must be said that Cyril Maude's famous play quite came up to all expectations and the character of Grumpy, aged, charming, irascible, yet lovable, keen-minded, humorous is one that will remain long in the memory. It is a difficult feat to enact a role made famous by another, but surely Edward Lewers as Mr. Andrew Bull-vast known as "Grumpy" was beyond criticism and he not only portrayed Grumpy, but was Grumpy himself. After the first few scenes, his every appearance was the occasion for applause from the large audience and he received the sure seal of approval in the last act when prolonged applause brought him back to bow.

The company is splendidly balanced and each person in the play, even if they only make a few short speeches are well cast and five finished performances.

whom he feels at times inclined to order back to her pink basement, is charming and looks very attractive throughout the entire play.

Frank Compton as Mr. Jarvis is excellent and his restrained acting very fine in the several tense moments which occur. Bailey Hicks as Ernest Heron seemed perfectly natural and at home in his role. As Susan, Miss Violet Hall Cairne had a good part which she made the most of. The brief glimpse of Miss Lorna Ambler made the audience desire to see her in other and larger parts. Frank Holms as Isaac Wolf gave a fine interpretation of that character. The rest of the company with their wonderful loyalty and patience with the old man gave splendid character studies, especially Robert Launier as Riddick while the "Kebble" of Vaughan Deering was impressive in its earnestness. papers about people getting wonderful relief from troubles like mine by taking Tanlac and so when everything else failed I gave it a trial, thinking to myself that at least it would do me no harm. The first few bottles gave me a good appetite, and my food seemed to be doing me good, for I gained several pounds in weight. I kept right on with it and gradually it seemed to drive the rheumatism out of my system. The pains in my knees began to ease off, and soon I was able to lay my crutches aside and get around with the aid of a stick. Then after a bit I was able to do away with the stick and, and can now get about without any help whatever, and feel almost like a boy again. All signs of nervousness have left me, and I can sleep the clock around. Many of my friends say they hardly know me for the same man that I was a few months ago, because I look so much better in every way. I certainly am feeling in fine shape once again, and am only too glad to tell others about the wonderful medicine which has done me so much good."
