During July the work went on as usual, fifty dollars and one or two loads of ooal being sent to the Musquash sufferers. In the report of the jail work, the superintendent stated that 1,280 books and pamphlets had been distributed to its inmates. The W. C. T. U. is not allowed to hold services at the jail as heretofore, but the Evangelical Alliance holds its services there twice a week. The W. C. T. U. offered to donate a small organ to assist in the music, but as singing an to assist in the music, but as singing the services of the propriately rendred by Miss Trueman.

The following report from St. John (North) was received: The North End W. C. T. U. held meetings every week this quarter, with an average attendance of fifteen members. Two new members have been added to our membership, and the usual amount of charitable work has been done. Four hales of besiding and clothing, as well as groceries and fruit were sent to the fire sufferers at Musquash, who also received $1 in each. There were 169 visits made to the sick, 22 to the Geeral Hospital, eight to the Home for Incurables, and four to the Old Ladies' Home. Provincial dues to the amount of $6 were paid and $$1,750 was sent to pay for the bronze figure to be placed on the memorial monument. The association also subscribed for one number of the Women's Journal. Every Sunday afternoon Bible classes were held and attended by the women.

The Fairyille report was as follows: Since the last quarterly meeting, May 15th, four meetings have been held, with a very small average attendance. Many of our members were from home, and there were other reasons which this season always brings. Some work has been done by the "faithful few," however, and we must not overlook this work. members were from home, and there were other reasons which this season always brings. Some work has been done by the "faithful few," however, and we must not overlook this work. Nineteen visits have been made to the sick, and fruit, flowers, text cards, and more substantial gifle were taken. Three suits of clothing for girls in their teens, besides nine other garments have been given to those, deserving. The sum of R. 20 has been paid in various ways to halp those who were in need. Some literature of which no account was kept, fine sheen distributed. Our only public meetings were those addressed by Mrs. Burger, one on Sunday afternoon, the other last evening, and they were very helpful and insipring, the a regult, seven henceded increase of membership. Members of our union have rendred great service to the f. O. G. T. by helping carry to a successful result an ice cream social, thus assessing our co-workers in their efforts to finish the Temperance Hall.

DISTRICT MEETING, Mrs. Burger, the St. Louis W. C. T. U, representative, addressed a large meeting in the Carleton Baptist church last night. She spoke of the twentieth century, its triumphs and temptations. Mrs. Burger stated that there is a spark of chivalry in the breat of the want of today although METHODIST CHURCH.

stated that there is a spark or chivalry in the breast of the youth of today, although at times appearances do not justify the assertion. The education given to the young girl of the present day, is very pernicious. She may know a little French and Latin, a little music, and how to conduct herself on all public occasions, but when anything occurs in her family by which she it left alone to face the battles of the world; she knows nothing by which to gain a livelihood. In this twentieth century there is a great deal of indecent language used by both sexes, and coarse jests are in vogue among the lower classes. It is the custom of men when they congregate to relate questionable, if not worse than questionable stories. While the injury to their own natures may not be so very great, yet to the youth who stand around, drinking in every word, incalcuable harm is done. These little fellows tell the stories to everyone they meet, and the A Large Amount of Business Transacted at Brown's Flats

Notes

Too much cannot be said in praise of the cordiality of the reception extended by the Brown's Flats friends to the members of the district, and of the wisdom and ability shown by Rev. W. E. Johnson, A. B., in all the arrangements.

All members of the district were furnished free tickets for tea served on the grounds adjoining the church, and those remaining over night were entertained at homes regardless of all denominational lines.
