

	Page.
Masters of Vessels, when officer is stationed on board, to provide accommodation ; becoming liable to a penalty ; in what cases the Board of Revenue may remit it	35
Not to unload before report and entry ; not to break bulk within three leagues of coast, &c. ; coastwise, to obtain clearance from nearest Collector ; penalty for neglecting to obtain clearance	40
Report to be made of vessel arriving coastwise with dutiable goods on board, and from parts beyond the seas ; form of oath	41
Penalty for unloading before report is made ; passing into Bras d'Or Lake without entering, liable to a fine of one hundred dollars ; to make manifests more in detail ; not reporting dutiable goods to forfeit two hundred dollars	42
May enter goods, not being the proprietor thereof, in special cases	59
Delaying to unlade, to pay tide-waiter	61
Penalty for refusing to answer the enquiries of officers	66
Penalty for landing or receiving goods on which duties are unpaid	70
Officers of Customs : Their power and duty ; additional officers, how paid	28
Penalty for merchandizing ; neglect of duty ; illegally assuming office	30,31
May be stationed on board ship in port	35
Punishment for collusion in smuggling	38
May board any vessel on arriving, &c.	44
Duty of, on entry of goods for warehouse	54
Tide-waiter to be paid by Master in case of delay . .	61
May board vessels suspected of smuggling	66
Passing exportation bonds to report uncanceled bonds to Board of Revenue	66
May enter buildings in certain cases ; may have a writ of assistance	67
Power to enter places suspected of illicit distillation	71
Penalties for brewing Ale, &c., and manufacturing Tobacco	24, 26
For neglect of duty ; illegally assuming office . . .	31
Law by which shall be recovered	33
For counterfeiting documents ; for false declaration	33
For removing forfeited goods	34
Persons on board vessels in certain cases	35
How recovered and applied	36
For breaking bulk within three leagues of coast, and unlading before report and entry ; for neglecting to obtain clearance	40