

XI. It shall be the duty of the Council or Corporation of any city, town, township or village Municipality, at any time after this Act shall come into force, to appoint for every such city, town, township or village, a License Inspector, (who shall be subject to removal at any time for
 5 misbehaviour or otherwise as to such Council shall seem fit,) whose duty it shall be to issue licenses according to the law in that behalf, under the authority of the Municipal Council of the said city, town, township or village, to inspect houses of public entertainment of every description licensed under this law, to see if they have the necessary qualifications,
 10 and are kept according to law, to prosecute any licensed person selling or acting otherwise than as authorized by his license, and also to prosecute all unlicensed persons selling or vending spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind, and otherwise to enforce this law.

License Inspectors to be appointed; their duties.

XII. The said License Inspector shall, before taking upon himself the 15 duties of the said office enter into a bond with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Mayor, Reeve or other Chief Magistrate of the Municipality, according to the form in the schedule to the Act marked F.

License Inspector to give securities.

XIII. It shall be the duty of the said Inspector upon receipt of the bonds, 20 certificate, confirmation and receipt required by this Act, the same being correct, to issue to the person named therein as applicant, a license to keep an inn or other house of public entertainment for retailing therein brandy, gin, rum, whiskey, wine, beer, porter, ale, cider or other spirituous or intoxicating drinks; such license to be signed by the Mayor or Reeve, and 25 Clerk of such Municipality, and countersigned by such license Inspector, and to be according to the form in the schedule to this Act marked G.

When licenses shall be issued and by whom.

XIV. It shall be the duty of every license Inspector throughout the Province to keep a license list in alphabetical order of persons obtaining license under this Act, with their places of abode, and the names of their 30 sureties; and an "offender's list" of the names sent to him by Justices of the Peace with the offence and punishment, and a true copy of such lists shall be published quarterly, in the months of March, June, September, and December, in some newspaper issued within the Municipality over which such license Inspector has jurisdiction, or if there be no newspaper 35 issued within such Municipality, then in the newspaper published nearest to it, and such alphabetical list shall be open for search and inspection upon the payment to such Inspector the sum of 1s. 3d., and that such Inspector shall give a certified copy of such list or part thereof, if required, which said certified copy shall be received as evidence in any Court of Justice.

License list to be kept.

To be published in a newspaper.

XV. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons licensed under this Act, to sell or provide any other person or persons with intoxicating liquors on the Lord's day; Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for 40 innkeepers under this Act to provide their lodgers or travellers with liquors as they would with any other article of food or drink; And it is further 45 provided, that persons convicted of a breach of this section shall incur a penalty of not less than £2 10s. nor more than £12 10s.

No liquors to be sold on the Lord's Day.

XVI. It shall not be lawful for persons licensed under this Act to keep their houses of business open for the reception or entertainment of visitors or others (always excepting travellers or lodgers) after the hour of eleven 50 o'clock in the afternoon, nor shall they open them before the hours of six

Houses not to be open after 11 p.m.