

question, whether such debentures shall issue; and if the aggregate number of the said votes, in such County, thus taken, and summed up by the County Clerk, shall be in favor of such issue, the County Council may then issue debentures, but not otherwise; and the like reference shall be had to the judgment of the voters at Municipal elections, in the Town of Brantford, before the Municipality thereof shall be empowered to increase the debt of the said Town.