

calendar

FRIDAY, JAN. 2
A blood donor clinic will be held from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at City Hall, City Centre Dr. It is hosted by the Mississauga Firefighters Wives Auxiliary.
Family Film Night features Ski The Outer Limits, Goggles and Nahanni at 8 p.m., Central library. Everyone is welcome.

SATURDAY, JAN. 3
Central library has stories for preschoolers age six to three at 10:30 a.m. There's a Saturday happening for youngsters six and up at 2:30 p.m., also at Central library.
Your Time at Burnhamthorpe library features movies of Jacques Cousteau including Night of the Green Squid, Green Sea Turtle and Coral Jungle. Films begin at 10:30 a.m.
Stories and crafts for youngsters take place at Lakeview library at 10:30 a.m.
There are stories for children four years and up at Port Credit library at 10:30 a.m.
Streetsville library has a display of microscopes dating from 1812 - property of Ron Walker. An art exhibit features The Group of Six - oils and pastels by Streetsville women. Registration begins at the library for next week's knitting classes.
The Discovering People series of special speakers sponsored by Sheridan College features Heather Cooper at Clarkson-Lorne Park library at 9 a.m. There are stories for preschoolers at 1:30 p.m., also at Clarkson-Lorne Park.

Lesley Bell discusses ideas for entertaining, such as menus and shortcuts at Park Royal library at 2:30 p.m. and there are stories for preschoolers at the same time.
Lakeview library has stories for preschoolers at 2 p.m.
Streetsville library's knitting classes begin for the season at 7:30 p.m. Pre-registration is required. There are stories for preschoolers at 2 p.m.
WEDNESDAY, JAN. 7
There are stories for preschoolers at Central library at 2:30 p.m. with advance registration. Also at 2:30 p.m. Irene Mechem demonstrates baking with yeast. The library's Armchair Travel series begins at 8 p.m. with the first film of Spain and Portugal.
Clarkson-Lorne Park library has stories for preschoolers at 1:30 p.m. The library's exhibition of art work by mother and daughter artists Margot and Margaret Clayton opens.
A display of Canadiana from the Lewis Bradley Pioneer Museum opens at Port Credit library.
Lesley Bell provides ideas for entertaining at Park Royal library at 10:30 a.m. while there is a story hour for preschoolers at the same time. An amateur talent show for youngsters at 4:30 p.m. is also at Park Royal.
Woodlands library has movies after school at 4 p.m. for youngsters.

Mississauga Rotary Club president Glenn Grosset (centre) presents a cheque for $11,000 to Father Andrew S. Hutchison, president of Peel Cheshire Homes. Money was raised for the Streetsville home for handicapped adults at the Rotary Club's annual television auction on Cable 10 Mississauga. Also on hand for the presentation were fund raising chairman Derek Morrison (left), Rotary board members Elio Agostini (second left) and Rotary vice-president Jim McPherson (right).

clubs & events

KEEP FIT CLASSES
Keep fit classes, organized by Mississauga Branch 26 of the Polish Alliance of Canada, begin Jan. 8 from 7 to 9 p.m. at Metropolitan Andrei, 515 Mississauga Valley Blvd. The school's gymnasium will be available for anyone who wants to make use of its facilities. Cost is free. Those interested call Ed Uba at 822-6340.

ANTIQUE ELECTION
The Antique Classic Car Club of Canada - Mississauga region, will hold its annual general meeting and election of officers Feb. 6 at Burnhamthorpe Community Centre. Anyone interested in joining call George Gow at 625-3184.

HOUSEWIVES
Canadian Housewives Register, Mississauga East, meets Wednesday, Jan. 7 for a trip to the McLaughlin Planetarium in Toronto. The group meets every two weeks at a member's home. Anyone interested in joining call Iris Dearlove at 279-2700.

WOMEN'S CLUB
Lakeshore Business and Professional Women's Club will meet Monday, Jan. 19, 7:30 p.m. at the Mayfair Inn, The Queensway and Kipling. Maureen Whitton from CIAG Insurance is scheduled to speak on retirement funding. For more information call Mary McFarland at 251-1203.

ENGINEERS' WIVES
Mississauga Professional Engineers' Wives Association starts a new program next month. Members are off to the Sigmund Samuel Canadian Gallery in January. The association has about 65 members and it usually meets the third Thursday of every month. Coming events include a dinner dance at the Airport Holiday Inn, a tour of the McLaughlin estate in Oshawa and a theatre night. New members are always welcome. For more details call Shirley Izzard at 274-5888.

UNICEF TALK
University Women's Club of Mississauga resumes its regular meetings Friday, Feb. 2 in the lecture room near the library at Erindale secondary school, Erin Mills Parkway at Dundas. Sybil Darnell, past president of the Canadian Unicef Committee will speak on women in the developing world. She will give special emphasis to India, its population and food problems. The program starts at 9 p.m. For more information call Kathy Stewart at 274-6050.

WINTER FUN
Terra Cotta Conservation Authority will be open every Sunday from Jan. 11 to Feb. 29 - weather permitting - for winter activities in the authority's Come Along. For $2 a car, participants can enjoy skating, cross-country skiing, snowshoeing or hiking. Courses will be taught in survival and skiing on some Sundays. Hot food, drinks and films will be available at the pavilion. Terra Cotta is five miles west of Highway 10 at Victoria, north of Brampton. For more information call Joan Rollings at 451-1615.

YOGA CLUB
Yogi Amrit Desai, a Guru of the Kripalu Yoga Ashram in Pennsylvania will speak at Huron Park Theatre, 2460 Stavebank Rd., Thursday, Jan. 8, 7:15 p.m. Admission will be $2 per person. Tickets are limited. Phone 278-4889. The evening will be sponsored by the Yoga Club of Mississauga.

POLISH CLASSES
Polish classes may soon be available in Mississauga. The Peel Board of Education must have 15 registrants or the course won't be offered. It is being made available through the board's effort along with Branch 26 of the Polish Alliance of Canada in Mississauga. Interested persons may call Ed Uba at 822-6340.

KIN LOTTERY
Meadowdale Kinsmen Club is running a limited ticket lottery with six major prizes. Tickets are $30 each but buyers get one chance to win each month for six months. Prize is either a $1,000 voucher or cash or $1,200 cash. For information call 929-8214 or 826-1050.

ROTARY FILMS
Fabulous Florida will be presented as the next film in the Rotary Club of Clarkson's Travel and Adventure series.

James Forshee, the film's photographer, will narrate the film. Among the sites seen will be historic St. Augustine, the islands of the Florida Keys, Kennedy Space Centre, Cypress Gardens and beaches along the Florida coast. The film will be screened Jan. 22 at Port Credit secondary school, Mineola Rd. east of Highway 10. For information call Bob Smith at 822-5340.

INTERCLUB
Mississauga Dixie Kiwanis was invited by the West Toronto Club and other neighboring clubs to a Christmas interclub at Casa Loma. New Fund-raising schemes were discussed at the club's regular Dec. 29 meeting at the Careless Navigator.

HORTICULTURE
Streetsville Horticultural Society will meet Monday, Jan. 12, 8 p.m. at Trinity Anglican Church in Streetsville. John Rutledge, past-president of the Ontario Regional Lily Society will present slides and speak on lilies for your garden. Visitors are welcome. For more information call Nora West at 826-1717.

GARDEN CLUB
The Cloverleaf Garden Club will meet again Jan. 21 at Mineola Rd. public school, 8:15 p.m. The club meets the third Wednesday of each month.

NEWCOMERS
The Mississauga Newcomers' club will hold the first general meeting of the new year on Wednesday, Jan. 21. The film will be How to say No to a Rapist. For information on joining the club, for residents new to Mississauga, call 822-4364. The club has activities ranging from bowling, to cards, to theatre and dinner clubs.

ACCOUNTANTS
At the Society of Industrial Accountants' first meeting of the new year, on Thursday, Jan. 22, Ron A. McKinlay of the Clarkson Company Ltd., (also known as Clarkson, Gordon and Co.) a well known firm of auditors, will speak on changes in the bankruptcy act. Reception is at 6 p.m. dinner at 7 p.m. and McKinlay will speak at 8 p.m. The meeting takes place at the Brampton Golf and Country Club.

NEW YEAR'S DANCE
The Separated and Divorced Catholics' group is hosting a New Year's Eve dance at the Catholic Information Centre, 830 Bathurst St. at Bloor. Members and prospective members and all single parents are welcome. Admission is $7 per person. There will be a disc jockey, bar and buffet. The dance runs from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. For further information call 534-2328.

BRONTE CREEK
Bronte Creek Provincial Park features free admission, a children's farm complete with livestock, playlot, nets and rope ladders and swings. There are specially-marked safe trails for the handicapped. The park is located west on the Queen Elizabeth Way, past Highway 25 - just follow the signs.

ART DISPLAY
The Art and Beauty shop at 18 Mississauga Rd. North is currently exhibiting a variety of modern paintings at the studio. The display will run until mid-January.

DANCE
The Mississauga Newcomers' Club will hold its New Year's Eve dance at St. Martin's school auditorium at 9 p.m. The $18 a couple ticket includes music by Larry Evans and a buffet. There will be a bar.

EUCHRE
The Park Royal Community Association Euchre games will resume in the Sheridan Room of Clarkson community centre on Truscott Dr. on Thursday, Jan. 11. Euchre games are held the second and fourth Thursday of each month at 8 p.m. Admission is $1.

NUTRITION
The Canadian Foundation for Ileitis and Colitis will hold the first general meeting of the new year on Wednesday, Jan. 14 in the main auditorium of the Hospital for Sick Children, 55 University Ave. Guest speakers will be dietitian Mrs. Elizabeth Barch, and gastroenterologist Dr. J. R. Hamilton. The topic for the evening is nutrition. Ileitis and colitis are diseases of the smaller and larger bowels. The disease sometimes goes unnoticed for years. For further information, call 366-0544. Everyone is invited to the evening which will be followed by refreshments.

NOVEL COURSE
A university credit course called The Canadian Novel will begin Jan. 5 over CJRT-FM radio, 91.1 on the dial. The course is offered by Open College Ryerson and explores imaginative Canadian writing in the 19th and 20th century. For information on the course, phone 595-5273, or write Open College, 297 Victoria St., Toronto M5B 1W1. The registration fee of $90 includes 15 novels. Some of the authors studied will be Mordecai Richler, Margaret Laurence and Susanne Moodie.

CURL-A-RAMA
The Mississauga Jaycees will hold their annual mixed curl-a-rama on Saturday, Jan. 3 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at Humber Highland Curling Club, Waldron Street, Etobicoke. The cost is $3.25 per person. Their second annual Ontario Snowgolf championships will be held in Simcoe, on Jan. 31. The winner will receive a paid trip to the world snowgolf championships in Prince George, British Columbia being held on Heritage Weekend, Feb. 13 to 15.

FURNITURE SHOW
The Toronto Furniture Show, the largest fine furniture show in Canada, featuring collections from 235 leading Canadian manufacturers, will be held at the International Centre from Jan. 11 to 15. Ultra-modern, custom-made, traditional, antique and antique reproduction furniture will be showcased over 500,000 square feet of display area. A complete line of interior decorating items such as lamps, mirrors, paintings and sculptures will also be featured. Admission is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. Hours for the public are 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Jan. 14 and 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Jan. 15. For show information, call Jim Myles at 866-3631. For general information call 677-6131.

REMEDIAL RIDING
The Remedial Riding Association held an open house last Sunday to display their new facilities. Classes for the handicapped will be given in January at Credit View Stables. The new facilities

seniors

The Dixie Belles will entertain Lorne Park seniors at a meeting Thursday, Jan. 15 at the Cawthra Centre.

BLOOR-DIXIE
Bloor-Dixie seniors will meet Monday, Jan. 12, 7:30 p.m. at the Cawthra Centre. Representative Diane Steeves, who attended the United Senior Citizens of Ontario convention will talk on the advantages and privileges obtained for seniors through the USCO.

FRIENDSHIP
Lakeshore Friendship club meets Jan. 5, 7:30 p.m. at Lakeview United Church, corner of Greaves and Second Ave. Membership is open to everybody in the community regardless of religion, race, creed or age. Members hope to start up a bridge league in the new year as well as their regular euchre and cribbage games.

For more information call Herb House at 278-4828.
BINGO
Bingo will be played at the centre Friday, Jan. 16 at 1:45 p.m. Admission is 35 cents.

EMERGENCY COURSE
The Red Cross Emergency course begins Tuesday, Jan. 13 at the centre from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. It will be a series of three two-hour sessions as suggested by the Ontario Advisory Council on Senior Citizens. Basic training on how to cope with emergency situations will be provided and a certificate will be awarded. Cost is $1.50 which includes a manual. Interested seniors call the centre at 274-2369. Other new courses this season are woodwork, sewing tricks of the trade and meals for one. These will cost $3 for a 10-week session.

Watch the birds. Magician Michael Wyvern fascinates Christine Underwood, 5, by producing a dove during his show at Clarkson-Lorne Park library on the weekend.

performing arts

JANUARY
A Mississauga Salute to Live Arts will be held on Jan. 8, 9 and 10. Drama, singing, dancing and live bands will live up Sheridan Mall, 2225 Erin Mills Parkway.

CONCERT
On Sunday, Jan. 11, The Associates of Hamilton Philharmonic will be in concert at Central library, 110 Dundas St. W. at 2:30 p.m. For information, call 279-7002.

MR. DRESS-UP
On Sunday, Jan. 11 Mr. Dress-Up will entertain at Glenforest secondary school, 3575 Fieldgate Dr. as part of the Bethesda Concert Series. There will be two performances, one at 1:30 p.m. and one at 4 p.m. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children. For further information, contact Derek Morrison at 625-1962.

FOLK ROCK
On Sunday, Jan. 18, Wedgewood Blue, a folk and soft rock group will perform at Central library, 110 Dundas St. W. at 2:30 p.m. For further information, call 279-7002.

VIOLIN-PIANO
On Sunday, Jan. 25, Clive Amor on the violin and Patricia Hogdon on the piano will entertain at Central library, 110 Dundas St. W. at 2:30 p.m. For further information call 279-7002.

ORGAN CLUB
Also on Sunday, Jan. 25, Chester Carlson, will play at the Applewood Organ Club, in the Texaco Room of Port Credit library at 8:15 p.m. Everyone is welcome. For information, call 277-0688.

HARP
On Tuesday, Jan. 27, Jeanette P. Goldhar will play the harp at Clarkson-Lorne Park library, 1474 Truscott Dr. at 8 p.m. For further information, call 822-1241.

CLASSES
Now is the time to register for children's creative drama, guitar, and preschool rhythm classes. For further information, call recreation and parks at 279-7600, extension 209.

INSTRUCTION
String instruction on the violin, viola, bass and cello is available for all ages by the Mississauga Symphony. For further information, call Nancy Reid at 278-2131 or Myron Maskig at 274-4445.

DEADLINES
All performing arts groups can participate in this monthly column by calling Mississauga recreation and Parks Department at 279-7600, extension 389. The deadline for the February column is Jan. 9.

guides & scouts

The Clarkston north district's 108th Guide company held a fall enrolment recently. The Guides presented skits and served refreshments to all those invited. Girls received into the company were: Michelle Darvill, Robin Drummond, Darlene Hesselde, Jill Humby, Diane Jones, Ronalea Younger.

Badges awarded recently were: Challenge Badge - Jean Waring; Yellow Cross - Kim Younger, Verna Coaker; Pet Keeper - Verna Coaker; Thrift - Kim Younger; Team Sport - Verna Coaker, Janice Russell; Baker - Sherry Brook.

BROWNIES
A performance of the Ice Capades was attended by the Brownies of the 107th Mississauga pack on Nov. 15.

Martine Blackhurst and Jacqueline Feeley presented a puppet show at a recent meeting.

At their last meeting of the year the Brownies sang Christmas Carols in the neighborhood returning to their meeting place for a light supper and Christmas treats.

Badges awarded recently were: Leslie - Anne Hanton - Beadworker, dancer; Karen Tisdale - beadworker, writer; Jacqueline Feeley - skater, singer, housekeeper, cook, athlete, skier, swimmer; Jane Kerr - skater, swimmer; Julie Purkis - skater, dancer; Nikki Leedham - petkeeper, singer, interpreter, booklover; Tamra Hopkins - singer, housekeeper, cook, collector; Alison Lohnes - singer, collector; Julie Cathy - cook; Elizabeth McBean - cook, skier, swimmer; Jill Rudderham - artist; Sandra Holl - writer; Catherine Burroughs - writer; Golden Ladder - Ruth Butt, Sandra Holl; 1st year star - Karla Hay; 2nd year star - Sara Brocklehurst, Susan Brown, Fiona Harvey, Sandra Holl, Glynn Ross, Jill Rudderham.

churches

The Adult Bible Class of Clarkson Road Presbyterian Church starts meeting again Sunday, Jan. 4 at 9:45 a.m. and every Sunday thereafter. Sets of weekly offering envelopes are now available for 1976 and can be obtained in the church's hallway.

MARATHON BRIDGE
The marathon bridge at St. Peter's Anglican Church in Erindale is scheduled to begin again this month. October and November games can be made up whenever convenient. The combined choirs of St. Peter's and Erindale College sang favorite carols and compositions from other lands at the Festival Service held recently.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE
The Catholic Women's League of St. Joseph's parish in Streetsville collected $178 in the Christmas Fund. It will be distributed among the Mississauga Christmas Bureau, The Good Shepherd Refuge and Carmel Heights.

OPEN HOUSE
Risen Christ Lutheran Church had an open house Dec. 28. Pastor and Pat Richter and family had members and friends of the congregation over to their home. The parish sponsored the Canadian Lutheran World Relief Fund by assembling Kiddie Kits which contained writing paper, pencils, ruler, toothbrush, hand towel, wash cloth, soap, comb and handkerchief.

VESPER SERVICE
Christ Our King Lutheran Church is holding a New Year's Eve Vesper service, Wednesday, Dec. 31 at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

EUCHARIST
The Church of St. Luke, 1513 Dixie Rd. will hold its New Year's Eve midnight Eucharist at 11:30 p.m. Holy communion will be held at 10 a.m. New Year's Day. On Sunday, January 11th, an Epiphany play will be presented in the Chancel at 7 p.m.

ST. CHRISTOPHER'S
St. Christopher's church, 1171 Clarkson Rd. N. will hold a New Year's Eve Party. For information, call Fred Pippa at 822-8496 or the rectory at 822-1171. The St. Vincent De Paul Society wishes to thank all who donated to their appeal for funds for their Christmas work and through 1975. Total collected was $800.75.

STREETSVILLE
Streetsville United church will hold its family worship service at 10 a.m., Jan. 4 with the senior choir singing. On Sunday, Jan. 11, Joyce Wilson Gowan will speak of her experience in Zambia, as a United Church Youth representative. The youth choir will sing. White gifts collected on Dec. 7 were taken to the Wesley Centre in Hamilton, for the mission.