

had any authority to take sand away and he said no. He asked me what the dues were. I told him. I do not know anything about them and went away home.

Came to see me at Melbourn in the County of Middlesex, this 4th day of Sept 1888

Thurston J.P.

Henry Rogers

This is the whole case. The Department will see that although there is very little in the evidence given against Mr. Rogers. The taking of the sand is not denied, at the same time giving the reasons he had for doing so.

Thank you very much

Your obedient servant

Thurston
Indian Agent

The Hon
The Secretary of Indian Affairs
Ottawa