Ottawa, December 15th, 1913.

107

Sir,

Referring to your letter of the 10th instant with enclosure, relative to placing a supply of medicines in the hands of Rev. Samuel P. Lough of Fairford, I have to request that you will state whether you consider it necessary to do so.

The Department is now paying two dispensers on the Fairford Reserve and it is understood that the Rev. Mr. Dodds is to take charge of the C of E Mission at Fairford. He will no doubt ask to take charge of the medicines and if he is better qualified than either of the two dispensers you should report the fact stating who he should replace as dispenser.

You should state what denomination Mr. Lough represents and whether his mission is in proximity to the Church of England Mission and School.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

R. Logan, Esqr.,
Indian Agent,
Portage la Prairie, Man.
