

We are both feeling very well after an active but physically beneficial summer.

We are hoping that this letter may find you more rested from your busy trip here. It arrives with it to you, as always, our warmest expressions of good wishes and fondest love.

your loving nephew,

Arthur

Dear Uncle Willie,

Kathleen and I were both so pleased to be at the Press Club Reception at "Ballymore" in Oakville. We enjoyed the function and seeing John and Mary and Mr. Hendy again.
Our greatest pleasure though was in seeing you again. It was very sweet of you to come with us for John's birthday.
