

- Q. What pocket did you carry your bill fold in?
- A. I never carried a bill fold.
- Q. What pocket did you carry your gas coupons in?
- A. In my hat, sir.
- Q. Where were they when you arrived at this guard room?
- A. In my shirt pocket.
- Q. Then, in the meantime you had undone your tunic and put your gas coupons in your shirt pocket?
- A. No, sir. I did not undo my tunic.
- Q. What did you do while you were away from A 16, this illegal absence you are charged with?
- A. I looked around for a place to live and couldn't find one. I started building a house --
- Q. What kind of a house? No, never mind. What type of work did you do?
- A. I was hauling supplies to the Internment Camp at Seebe.
- Q. From home?
- A. From the Maple Leaf truck depot in Calgary.
- Q. Did they know you were a soldier?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. Did you tell them?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. Were you in uniform?
- A. Part of my uniform.
- Q. What kind of trousers did you wear?
- A. Overalls, sir. Civilian overalls.
- Q. When you were here in A 16 you said you spoke to Captain Neal and you requested leave? Is that so?
- A. Yes, sir. I am not quite sure what that Captain was in.
- Q. Was he your Company Commander?
- A. I think he was, sir.
- Q. And he refused you?
- A. He told me there was no possible chance of getting leave.
