

sidence. Communications on subjects not entered in the program, shall be limited to five minutes, unless otherwise directed by vote of the Convention.

The time of the first speaker in the program of each daily session and that of each other speaker on the program and for discussion following each address shall be fixed by the Program Committee and stated on the program.

Subject to extension by the Chair, in debate or any resolution the mover and seconder shall be limited to 15 minutes each and each other speaker to five minutes.

For the convenience of the Convention and speakers, a bell will ring once three minutes before the close and twice at the close of the time allotted to each speaker on the program. In the course of discussion and in addresses not entered in the program, the bell will ring once one minute before the close and twice at the close of the time allotted to the speaker under these rules.

Any speaker rising to address the Convention who is in the employ whether by retainer or otherwise, of any public service corporation which is interested in the action or subjects of deliberation of this Convention, shall mention the fact and nature of such employment before proceeding to speak.

General

Excepting the decorations provided by the Convention, banners shall not be displayed, nor shall printed matter be distributed or sold in the auditorium without written authority from the Executive Committee.