

473. Annoyed that their calculations as to the marriage of Philip and Annie had not come true.
493. She had prayed for a sign, but the expectation that some sign might be sent filled her with terror and she could not endure it.
498. "And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah."—Judges iv., 5.
504. Malachi iv., 2.
- 505-6. Mark xi., 8-10.
510. So. If.
529. the Biscay. The Bay of Biscay.
531. the summer of the world. The tropics.
532. the Cape. The Cape of Good Hope.
536. the golden isles. The East Indies.
542. sea-circle. The circle of which the horizon formed the boundary. This circle was constantly changing with the progress of the vessel.
543. full-busted figurehead. It was the custom to have a carved figure or bust, generally the image of the Virgin, at the prow of the vessel.
557. so wild that it was tame. Never having seen human beings, they had not learned to fear them.
569. Fire-hollowing. Burning out the centre with fire.
571. God's warning. God's warning that he could not help himself, that he could only wait for help to come.
572. lawns. Open grassy spaces in the woods.
573. glades. Narrower spaces than lawns.
579. broad belt. The torrid zone.
586. zenith. The point in the heavens which is directly overhead.
597. globed. Suggests larger and more brilliant stars.
598. hollower. Because of the silence of the night.
- 602-605. Either the spirit of the old friends and scenes came to him, or his spirit went out to them. Two ways of saying the same thing—that there came before his mind the vague images of former scenes.
- many phantoms. Many images went to make up the day dream.
610. dewy-glooming. Looking darker in the early morning because covered with dew.