

Governments, the members of the House of Commons, the Senate and the Provincial Legislature.”

This declaration of the views of the leading interests of the Province should not be disregarded. The men who compose the Associated Boards of Trade are directly interested in the welfare of the mining districts, and they thoroughly understand the situation. Their views should have weight when Parliament is dealing with the applications for this railway charter, especially when no subsidy or other favor is requested by the investors.