

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.	PAGE
Irruption and settlement of the barbarous nations on the ruins of the Western Empire	1
CHAPTER II. A.D. 493-600.
Theodoric, the Ostrogoth—Laws and manners of the barbarians—Glance at the Eastern Empire—its aspect under Justinian—the campaigns of Belisarius and Narses—the Lombards—Close of the Sixth Century	17
CHAPTER III. A.D. 600-1100.
Survey of the Church, with a sketch of the principles of heresy, and their influence upon secular affairs—Mahomet and Islamism	37
CHAPTER IV. A.D. 511-1032.
The Franks, under the Merovingian and Carolingian dynasties—Charlemagne—the feudal system and state of society	53
CHAPTER V. A.D. 602-1203.
The Byzantine Empire under the Heraclian, Isaurian, Amorian, Basilian, and Comnenian dynasties—State of society throughout the provinces	73
CHAPTER VI. A.D. 610-1266.
The Saracens, Russians, Normans, and Hungarians—Germany under the Saxon, Franconian, and Swabian Emperors—Conflict between the Church and the World—the Seljukian Turks.	101
CHAPTER VII. A.D. 1099-1291.
The Crusades, to the loss of the last Latin possessions in the Holy Land	122
CHAPTER VIII. A.D. 850-1300.
The Great Commercial Republics of the Middle Ages, with a slight territorial sketch of Christendom to the close of the Thirteenth Century—Boniface VIII.	146
CHAPTER IX. A.D. 1303-1492.
The Popes at Avignon—the Paulicians—Survey of society—Literature of the Middle Ages	171