was sent in by telephone. One of the floors had caught fire from the furnace. It was extinguished before very much damage was done.
Henry Garrett, of New York, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Gertrude Eberts, at the Garner House. Henry is an old Chatham boy and has not been home for six years. He is looking remarkably well and is a sample of a bright Chatham boy who has succeeded in the world.
Yesterday was Educational anniversary in Victoria Ave. Methodist church. In spite of the severity of the weather good audiences greeted Rev. E. Langford, B. A., of Dresden, who was the speaker of the day. Mr.
Langford preached two able and eloquent sermons. In the evening Mr.
Harry Flowers sang "The Holy City." Mr. Flowers, as usual, delighted the audience with his rendering of this fine selection.
The gospel temperance meeting which was held in the I. O. O. F.
Auditorium last evening was greeted with a crowded house. Mr. Miller, the evangelist who is conducting services in the Park street Methodist church, have a very interesting talk on the different phases of temperance work in Australia. The address was very much enjoyed. Mr. Miller also sang a solo which was much appreciated. Geo. Morris occupied the chair.
Rev. Mr. Brown, of Blenheim will address the meeting next Sunday.

PRESENTATION
Chalmers' Presbyterian Church Remembers Mr. Urquhart and Miss Mackness

Last Wednesday evening was the occasion of the annual congregational meeting of Chalmers' Church. Owing to the inclemency of the weather there were not as many present as there would have been had the evening been pleasant; nevertheless those who did attend had a very pleasant time. In the absence of the pastor, Mr. Neilly, Mr. Bellamy was appointed chairman.

After the minutes of the last congregational meeting were read and adopted, the treasurer's report was read, showing that the church is in good financial standing, and that after the minister's salary and the expenses of the church were paid there was quite a substantial surplus.
When the remainder of the business was transacted, the chairman called on the choir for a selection of music.
One of the Elders then asked Mr.
Urquhart and Miss Mackness to come forward, and made a few brief remarks in behalf of the congregation, while Mr. Neil Cummings and James McKay presented Mr. Urquhart with a handsome quivered oak and leather rocking chair. Mrs.
Goodridge then presented Miss Mack-ness with a beautiful gold ring set with pearls. Mr. Urquhart responded in a very appropriate and feeling manner. He also, at her request, thanked the congregation in behalf of Miss Mackness.

After a vote of thanks to the chairman, the congregation partook of a sumptuous lunch served by the ladies.

The written addresses were as follows:—
To Mr. John Urquhart.— We the members and adherents of Chalmers' Presbyterian church, embrace this opportunity of manifesting to the great appreciation we have of the services you have rendered as leader of our choir. We do not forget the faithful and efficient services rendered by you in our choir. During the many years you have acted as leader you have shown faithfulness and untiring energy. But while we, as a church cannot offer any adequate reward, we do not forget your work and labor of love. We desire, at least, in some small and tangible manner to show you our respect and esteem. Permit us, therefore, to present you this chair, as a slight token of our appreciation and high regard and trust that you may be long spared to enjoy it.

We ask you still to continue to lead our choir and we will give you our heartiest support.

Signed on behalf of the congregation:

MRS. W. G. STARK.
MRS. NEIL CUMMINGS.
MRS. GEO. GOODRIDGE.
MISS K. McKAY.

To Miss Annie Mackness.
Your friends and members of Chalmers' church have felt that at least a slight expression of the appreciation of your services as organist, ought to be acknowledged and presented to you. You have been faithful and diligent and always at your post, ready to help in the work of the Master. You have always been faithful in your duties not only as organist in the church, but in the Sabbath school as well. As a very sincere token of our affection for the services rendered and as a mark of esteem, we ask you to accept this ring.

Signed on behalf of the congregation:

MRS. W. G. STARK.
MRS. NEIL CUMMINGS.
MRS. GEO. GOODRIDGE.
MISS K. McKAY.

Kindness is a quality which belongs to the human family, but often is strangled through too much thought.

MERELY AN ADVT.
Some amusing interest was taken in the fact that on Saturday last the Mail and Empire, in accordance with the other Toronto papers, published an advertisement for Mr. Blain, one of the Ross candidates in the Queen City.
The disturbance among the Rossites is the proverbial tempest in a teapot. Unlike the local Rosette organ, which even refused a paid advertisement of the recent great Whitney meeting, the people's papers have nothing to conceal or be afraid of, and consequently all legitimate advertisements are published. There is nothing more, or nothing less, in the whole transaction, but, lacking any solid campaign reasoning, it seems necessary for the Rosettes to make their capital out of such "issues."
