

smash planty hole longside my house. Suppose that water walkee inside that gin mill? How fashion! My no sabe. Suppose Chinaman wanches catchee dlunk, ho no walkee gin mill side. Chinaman catchee opium dlunk, he go sleep planty. Hishman catchee whiskey dlunk he talkee politic, makee bobbely. Maskee! That Hishman he walkee inside my house, talkee my belong danfoolo, bloke my head. My bobbely he, he bobbely ny. He fien allo same makee spilum too muchee my earstumer close. He talkee Chinese muss go, allo same Dennis Kearney. Then policeman makee ny walkee this side an' makee pull my hair."

McLaughlin muttered aloud :—

"Faith! I'd give him a box o' cigarrs, av he'd pull the pig-tail elane out av yer goose-egg av a head intirely!"

"Silence in the court!" roared the marshal.

A witness was now put on the stand. He described himself as Heinrich Blumenthal, greengrocer, and his evidence ran thus :—

"Choodge, I shust told you all apoud it. Dot Mick Laughlin he shlog dot Shinerman in der het mit a dable und a vash-dubs. Dot Mick's frents he shmack dot Shinerman's frents mit flat-irons und vash-boards, und, by chimney! never I see in my live such a fighting like dot. Breddy soon dot bolice he gomes und glubs my wife, und shpits on dot slate by my crocery vero I hef my aggoutns. Py crasius! I dond know vedder I getts my pills baid, or vedder I dond bay myselluf doze pills vot my gustomers oze me! I dold dot Mick I gompramise of he gifs me six tollars and a halluf. He gall me a koterhall und dond gif me a zent."

The judge ordered the case dismissed, and told the burly policeman on duty to clear the court.

That officials pushed plaintiff, defendant and witnesses roughly before him until he had them herded on the pavement, and then dismissed them, saying :

"Now look a here. You galoots better come off this racket! You're all too fresh! The fust muss yer make down among yer shebangs again, I'll come down an' dance the lancers all over yer. If I come down and paste yer all around with a club, ye'll wish yer was inside a fire-proof safe an' der combination bust. Now git!!"

And they got.

"Whose ferry-boats are these?" growled a senior as he stumbled over a pair of shoes in the hall.

"Ferry-boats indeed, sir!" said a pretty face, opening the door. "Those are my shoes, sir. Very polite of you to call them ferry-boats, sir!"

"I did not say ferry-boats, you misunderstood—fairy boots I said, my dear, dear young lady." It takes four years to do that.—Tyflonian.

A FEW days ago one of our most profoundly scientific lecturers was rather curiously disturbed while detailing to a large audience the differences between Amoeba and Protozoa, by a gentleman coming up to him with a face as long as a yard of pump water and a-propos of nothing—handing him a—cat. The audience was enthusiastic in its unscientific applause but the lecturer lost both his temper, and the thread of his discourse. See what cats can do!
