A Valuable Skin.
Five Hundred and Fifty Dollars in one Pelt.

Part of the window display at the well-known fur showrooms of Messrs. W. & D. Dineen is a magnificent specimen of the skin of that much sought for animal, the sea otter. Skins of all sea otter are the rarest and most valuable of all on the catalogue of fashionable furs, and almost fabulous prices are paid for the finest specimens. The one on view at Dineens' is valued at $550, and will be utilized in the manufacture of fur caps, the fur being a favorite one with Toronto's best citizens. Fine furs for the holidays are displayed to magnificent profusion at Dineen's. Many who have not yet availed themselves of the bargains at Dineens' will doubtless seize the opportunity.
