Steel Alloy Church and School Bells. Send for Catalogue. The C. S. BELL CO., Hillsboro, O.

How many take a wrong view of life, and waste their energies and destroy their nervous system in endeavouring to accumulate wealth, without thinking of the present happiness they are throwing away! It is not wealth or high station which makes a man happy—many of the most wretched beings on earth have both—but it is a radiant, sunny spirit which knows how to bear little trials and enjoy little comforts, and thus extract happiness from every incident in life.

Heart power belongs to all; it may be cultivated in all. Sooner or later we find that the affections are partly under our own control, and that they may be shaped by our own effort; but, when we come to put forth persistent efforts, to make our affections and our characters what they ought to be, we are met with extraordinary difficulties which lead us to believe in the innate depravity of human nature. Then man ascertains that, although he can to a certain extent mould his own character, and shape and purify and elevate his own affections still he needs an influence from above to touch those bad elements of his nature and lift him up.

CHURCH, CHIME, SCHOOL & OTHER BELLS

An interesting discussion on the subject of the Revision of the Book of Common Prayer took place at the Church Congress, which was lately held in Washington, D.C.

Prof. Ernst Sellin, Egyptologist, reports the discovery of the ancient palace of Herod the Great on the plain of the lower Jordan, near the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. The foundations are in a complete state of preservation, and Prof. Sellin says the palace might easily be reconstructed after the original plans. Herod, called "The Great," was King of Judea from 40 to 4 B.C. He was noted for his excessive cruelty and also for his love of building cities, temples, and palaces.

Ancestral worship is the real religion of the Japanese, as it is also of the Chinese, though the latter do not deify their deceased ancestors as much as the former do. The people of "the land of the gods," as the Japanese are given to calling their country, have adopted some of Buddhism, Confucianism and even Shintoism only as adjuncts which they will give up and then hold fast to the essential thing of ancestor worship. This has been the case from time immemorial, and is so still.
