

DREADED EPILEPSY

A Case That Should Bring Hope to Other Sufferers

There are many cases of epilepsy incurable so far as present medical knowledge extends and the sufferer is doomed to go through life a victim to a disease which has stricken him suddenly and without warning, and with each recurring attack his mental powers. Taken in time, however, many cases of epilepsy have been permanently cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in cases where the disease has not reached an acute form this remedy is worth giving a fair trial. Among the cures we give the following. Mrs. Robert Stringer, New Liskeard, Ont., says: "I have long felt that we should write you and let you know what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for our grand-son, who was attacked with epilepsy. The trouble seemed to come on following an attack of whooping cough. His parents seemed to notice that his eyes seemed to bulge out, and that he would be unconscious for a few seconds, and would go about his play as usual. The child was five years old at this time. The trouble seemed to be growing more severe and the attacks to come oftener, and as the local doctors were not helping him they sent him to the Children's Hospital in Toronto. He remained there for a short time, when the doctors said his trouble was epilepsy, and they could do nothing for him. Time went on and the attacks grew worse, and in the fall of 1908 my daughter wrote me that the little fellow was getting so bad that they wanted to send him back to the hospital. I asked her to send him to me for a time, and as one of his eyes had become crooked I took him to an oculist, who said this trouble could be cured, but it had nothing to do with bringing on his other trouble. As I knew that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were a splendid medicine I decided to give them to him, in the hope that they might benefit him. We were very careful as to diet, and as to keeping the child from excitement. In about a month we noticed that the trouble was lessening, and at this time the little fellow returned home and his mother kept up the treatment. In a few months he seemed fully cured, but during the holidays the trouble came back in a milder form, and the Pink Pills were again resorted to, and again the trouble disappeared, and although more than a year has passed there has not since been any sign of it. We feel so deeply indebted for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for him that we hope this plain statement of our experience will benefit some other sufferer."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Boon to Stock-raisers

To Know How to Cure Colic, Distemper, Colds, Swellings, etc., Saves Thousands Each Year.

Of Practical Interest to Horsemen.

It is a matter of vital importance to every farmer, horse-owner, and stock-raiser to know exactly what to do when one of his animals is taken suddenly sick.

The letter of Mr. Frank G. Fullerton, which we print below, gives information of inestimable value, and tells of his experience in curing ailing stock during the past thirty-eight years.

"Several years ago when my horse took colic I used to give them Cayenne Pepper in hot milk, but in a few cases only did I help, and because I had no means at hand I lost several valuable animals. Some one told me of the success Mr. Wendling, of Brockville, Ont., had in his racing stables with 'Nerviline,' so I laid in a supply. It wasn't very long before Nerviline saved the life of a valuable stallion of mine, which was worth at least $1,000.00. This horse was taken with colic, and would have died had it not been for Nerviline. I have used Nerviline for reducing swellings, for taking out distemper lumps, and easing a bad cough, and always found it worked well. I recommend every man who owns horses or cattle to keep Nerviline on hand."

The Seven Wonders.

Recent efforts of scientists to determine the seven wonders of the modern world have resulted in their making the following choice: Wireless telegraphy, the telephone, the aeroplane, radium, antiseptics and anti-toxins, spectral analysis and X-rays. Of the seven wonders of the ancient world, only one was of practical utility, the light-house of Alexandria; the others were notable only for size or beauty.

Mrs. Wye—Oh, varying. Some we keep as long as a week and some as long as a meal.

LIQUID SULPHUR

is prescribed and used by leading nurses in Toronto as an anti-septic. LIQUID SULPHUR by virtue of being simply pure SULPHUR liquified is one of Nature's own remedies for skin troubles. It is simple, costs very little, but is most effective in its results. ECZEMA disappears when LIQUID SULPHUR is given a fair trial. For sale all druggists. Price 50 Cents per bottle.

Pearls of Truth.

The way to gain a good reputation is to endeavor to be what you desire to appear.—Socrates.

Men, as a rule, act rightly in civilized society, not from compulsion, but from ethical habit.—Lord Haldane.

True manhood comes from self-control—from subjection of the lower powers to the higher conditions of our being.—Smiles.

The way to avoid evil is not by maiming our passions, but by compelling them to yield their vigor to their moral nature.—H. W. Beecher.

Good nature and common sense are required from all; but one proud distinction is enough for any one individual to possess or to aspire to.—Hazlitt.

The man who will succeed must seek, and he must see—he must strike, and, above all things, he must believe. Nature does nothing for doubters.—J. S. Blackie.

Knowledge must be accepted from whatever source the truth comes, and no Church is entitled to set a bar to the progress of scientific inquiry.—Bishop Weldon.

WOMEN NEED GIN PILLS

For Weak Backs and Headaches.

Miss Ethel Balcombe, of Port Dufferin, N.S., writes: "I was troubled with Kidney Disease for several years. My back was weak. I had terrible headaches and was so restless that I could not sleep at night. At last a friend told me about GIN PILLS. I at once got a box and after taking them, I felt better—after taking three boxes, I was cured."

Grains of Gold.

There is no duty we so much underrate as the duty of being happy.—R. L. Stevenson.

Honesty is the best policy, but he who acts on that principle is not an honest man.—Whately.

In sleep and death the divine element of which we are compounded re-appears, and we cease to hate or criticize.—Mark Rutherford.

A Christian is of no sect. He can dwell in the midst of sects, and appear in their services without being attached or bound to any.—Jacob Boehme.

Many in this world run after felicity like the absent-minded man hunting for his hat, while all the time it is on his head or in his hand. Sydney Smith.

There are signs that the best people in the best nations are ceasing to wish to live in a world of mere claims, and to proclaim on every occasion "Our country, right or wrong!"—Lord Haldane.

"It is said that more than one person has been killed by kissing."
"Yes; but isn't it great if you live through it?"
George was only six and had not yet started school. One day his uncle said to him, "I hear that you are going to start school next term, George. Aren't you pleased?"
"Not at all," answered George with decision. "I can't read or write, or do sums, so I don't see what I am going to do there all day."

Regularity

of the bowels is an absolute necessity for good health. Unless the waste matter from the food which collects there is got rid of at least once a day, it decays and poisons the whole body, causing biliousness, indigestion and sick headaches. Salts and other harsh mineral purgatives irritate the delicate lining of the bowels. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills—entirely vegetable—regulate the bowels effectively without weakening, sickening or griping. Use

ECZEMA ON FACE, SCALP AND HANDS

Game Off in Scales. Itched Badly. Had to Tie Hands. Little Watery Pimples. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Completely Cured.

1307 Davenport Road, Toronto, Ont.—"My eczema first started when I was a baby, on my face and scalp. It seemed dry and when I scratched it, it came off in scales. It itched very badly and I was obliged to have my hands tied up so as to prevent scratching my face. Little white watery pimples came on my hands and face and I had to stay home from school for nearly two weeks. It caused my face and hands to look badly. The eczema took a very bad form, appearing on my face in little watery scales so bad that I could hardly bear to be touched. My hair being naturally very thick I found to be getting thinner and wondered what could cause it to fall out."

"My mother tried—and spent no end of money trying to get me better but it did no good. At last a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment and my mother used them. We applied the Cuticura Ointment to my face, head and hands and washed with the Cuticura Soap and the eczema began to disappear. Before six months had passed I was completely cured." (Signed) Miss Constance Jane, May 26, 1913.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, scaly scalp, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and chapped nails, that it is almost criminal not to use them. A single set is often sufficient. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with Soap-Book, send post-card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

THE WEATHER.

It Is Always an Interesting Topic of Conversation.

Beware of those well-meaning but over-progressive people who would deprive us of the weather as a topic of casual conversation. It is, to be sure, a time-worn topic, and most of the remarks one hears about it are bromidic to a high degree and utterly lacking in originality.

At the same time, if we are going to live together harmoniously, it is absolutely necessary for the human race to have a harmless, uncontentious subject about which we may converse at a moment's notice. If we aren't going to use the weather for this purpose what are we going to use? The weather is always with us. Everybody knows about it, and yet nobody is responsible. If you meet a man and say, "It's a nasty day," you know absolutely that it isn't his fault, and therefore, that he is not going to be offended. If you say, "It's a nice day," he knows you have had nothing to do with it, and, therefore, that you are neither bragging nor trying to sell him stock in a weather-promotion company. If you say you think it will be a fine day tomorrow he knows you are not a propagandist, but merely a mild sort of optimist.

It is a good topic because it can never be settled, while questions that can be settled must ultimately be laid aside in favor of something new. There is no authoritative theory about the weather; therefore, one may say what one pleases without a college diploma or a State license.

Let us talk about the weather. It won't hurt us a bit, and it won't bother the weather.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

Surprised the Bishop.

A bishop was one day addressing a Sunday School, when he said, in a most impressive way:
"And now, children, let me tell you a very sad fact. In Africa there are 10,000,000 square miles of territory without a single Sunday School where little boys and girls can pass their Sundays. Now, what shall we all try and save up our money and do?"

And the class, as one voice, replied, in ecstatic union:
"Go to Africa!"

Mistaken Courtesy.

An old Irish countrywoman, going to Dublin by train, says the London Times, stepped into a first-class carriage with her basket, and made herself comfortable.

Just before the train started, the conductor passed along, and noticing the woman and the basket, said, gruffly:
"Are you first-class, my good woman?"
"Begor, I am, and thank you," she replied, with a smile, "and how do you feel yourself?"

Minard's Liniment Cures Cargat in Cows.

A Gentle Hint.

Not all the worms that turn are as gentle and as tactful in their turning as the one that a German paper recently described.

A quiet, patient little man had been pushed about and trodden on by the other passengers on a crowded street-car. For a long time he suffered in silence. Then, in a meek voice, he addressed an awkward youth standing next to him.
"Young man," he said "I hope you will not think me rude, but may I ask your age?"

The youth stared at him for a moment, and replied, "Eighteen."
"Eighteen," repeated the little man softly. "Now, really, young man, don't you think that you are old enough to stand on your own feet?"

HOSTELS FOR WOMEN ONLY.

London Helping to Solve Problem of Housing the Underpaid.

What are known in London as "women's hostels" are said to be growing more numerous in the English metropolis and are helping to some extent in solving the problem of housing the underpaid woman worker.

The rent of a cubicle in a hostel, according to The London Times, averages about ninety cents a week, which rent must always be paid in advance.

A reference is required with each intending resident from some responsible person, and the matron writes for this reference before the would-be resident takes up her abode at the hostel.

All the cubicles are small, but very clean, and painted white. Each cubicle contains a bed, chair, washstand with two drawers and a rug at the bedside.

A framed and colored scriptural text hangs over each bed, and there are hooks at the foot of the bed on which to hang clothes. Residents at the hostels are supposed to make their own beds and keep their cubicles tidy.

There is a large airy room provided as a general sitting-room for the residents.

Misunderstood.

The lady visitor from out of town was being conducted round a famous cathedral by a guide. "Ah, yes, Gothic, is it not?" she murmured with ecstatic admiration. The guide regarded her with pity mixed with horror. "Certainly not, ma'am," he replied, "Episcopalian."

Many Reasons Why Liquid Cough Mixtures Can't Cure Bronchitis

But the Healing Fumes of Cattarhazone, Which are Breathed to the Furthest Recesses of the Bronchial Tubes, Bring Quick Relief and Sure Cure.

Every sufferer from coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and chest ailments needs a soothing, healing medicine which goes direct to the breathing organs in the chest and lungs attacks the trouble at the source, disperses the germs of disease, and cures the ailment thoroughly. And this medicine is "Cattarhazone."

The germ-killing balsamic vapor mixes with the breath, descends through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, and finally reaches the deepest air cells in the lungs. All parts are soothed with rich, pure, medicinal essences whereas with a syrup the affected parts could not be reached, and harm would result through numbing the stomach with drugs.

"I have been a chronic sufferer from catarrh in the nose and throat for over eight years. I think I have spent four hundred dollars trying to get relief. I have spent but six dollars on Cattarhazone, and have been completely cured, and, in fact, have been well for some time. Cattarhazone is the only medicine I have been able to find that would not only give temporary relief but will always cure permanently. Yours sincerely, (Signed) WILLIAM RAGAN, Brockville, Ont.

For absolute, permanent cure, use Cattarhazone. Two months' outfit costs $1.00; smaller size, 50c., at all storekeepers and druggists, or The Cattarhazone Company, Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

Made to Order.
