Greenock Church was tastefully decorated with flowers and palms and the music was much enjoyed on Easter Sunday.

The musical portion of the services was a distinctive feature of Easter festival in the Methodist church. The choir was heard to great advantage in the anthems: "Hail Him, Lord and Leader," George B. Nevill, "Awake Thou that Sleepest," B. Jackson.

A duet by the Misses Alice Anderson and Mabel Elliott was sweetly rendered.

A typewriter that's only a collection of things-a-bobs and da-dads, is no good. If it does not write your letters properly, save your time and the time of your typist, it isn't worth the metal it's made of.

If you want efficient service, time-saving speed and all year round reliability, order one of my Remington or Smith Premier typewriters to-day.
