MEMORIAL SERVICE

Hantsport Advance

A united memorial service for our late Queen was held in the Baptist church on Saturday morning at 11 a. m., when music and addresses appropriate to the solemn occasion were given.

And in example live Her faith and hope and mighty deeds, Still fresh instruction give.

The hymn "Shall We Gather at the River" was sung, when Mr. Shields, principal of our high school, spoke in a touching way of the gift of such a Queen as Victoria.

This was regarded by the large congregation that filled the house, to be a most helpful, fitting and impressive service.

THE QUEEN HERSELF

THE AUTHOR.

From the Guelph Herald, Jan. 26th, 1901.

The Herald, yesterday, gave a review of the forthcoming LIFE AND REIGN OF QUEEN VICTORIA, to be published by the WORLD PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Mamma—You have become very fond of Mr. Haggard in quite a short time.

Daughter—Why, mamma, what makes you think that?

Mamma—I overheard you telling him last night that he was too hateful for anything.

What caused his death? asked the stranger, as the little procession passed over the hill to the rude cemetery.

Waal, stranger, replied Rattlesnake Pete, th' jury pronounced it suicide.

You see he opened a jack pot on a pair of deuces.—Colorado Springs Gazette.

VALUE OF FRUIT CROP IN N. S.

The annual address of President Bigelow of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Ass'n, read before the Ass'n last week contained some very interesting statistics on the value of the fruit crop of this province.

Mr. Bigelow estimates the annual value of the Nova Scotia fruit crop at 1,000,000. The net receipts for apples shipped in 1899 to England were $800,000, but in 1900 only $200,000.

Boy—Grandpa, I wish you'd buy me a pony.

Grandpa (a philanthropist)—My son, think of the poor boys who can't even get bread to eat.

Boy—I was thinking of them—the poor little boys whose papas have ponies to sell that nobody will buy.

Whatever Disease

is caused by weakness of the stomach or bowels is likely to yield to Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

We don't say sure; and you may not be sure that your, or your little one's trouble is due to weak stomach or bowels.

Doctors can't always trace a disease to its cause; and you can't.

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod Liver Oil is the easiest food for a tired digestion. But that isn't all; it encourages stomach and bowels to tackle their work; it gives and gets them strength from the other food they are able to take. Give it time.

Food is the best of medicine: food that sets the body going again.

This is health: give it time.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.
