KEPT HIS PROMISE.

Hon. J. P. Whitney, Premier of Ontario, is to be congratulated upon the reduced price of school readers which now obtains in his province. For years when he was leader of an opposition, he maintained that the Government was allowing an alleged "ring" to charge prices out of proportion to the value of the readers supplied for the use of the school children of the province. He promised if he were made a premier, he would give the people cheaper books. He appointed a commission to investigate, and when the old contract expired inaugurated a new era with lower prices. He has fulfilled his promise.—Canadian Courier.

Canada's population is estimated by the census department at 6,504,000. The Dominion has more people than Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Holland, Scotland, Ireland, Serbia, Rumania or Bulgaria and almost as many as Belgium. At the present rate of progress the Dominion should reach the ten million population mark by 1920.

WHAT MAKES A BOY POPULAR.

What makes a boy popular? Surely it is manliness. During the war how many schools and colleges followed popular boys? These young leaders were the many boys whose hearts could be trusted. The boy who respects his mother has leadership in him. The boy who is careful of his sister is a knight. The boy who will never violate his word and who will pledge his honor to his own hurt, and change not, will have the confidence of his fellows. The boy who will never hurt the feelings of any one will one day find himself possessing all sympathy.

If you want to be a popular boy, be too many and generous and unselfish to seek to be popular; be the soul of honor; love others better than yourself, and people will give you their hearts, and try to make you happy. That is what makes a boy popular.—Apples of Gold.

The London Times places the imports into British South Africa for the three months ended March 31, 1907, at $35,521,232, against $43,246,507 in the corresponding period of 1906. The United Kingdom contributed 55 per cent. of these imports. The exports, inclusive of gold and diamonds, amounted to $58,902,710, as against $47,494,026 last year.

FORGERS SENTENCED

Ed. Baldwin and Arthur Smith, the two men recently rounded up in Tilbury and convicted here for forgery, came up in County Criminal Court at noon Saturday for sentence, before Judge Bell. Smith had two charges laid against him, one of forgery, and the other of attempted jail-breaking. He was sentenced to two years in Central Prison. Baldwin was sentenced to one month in the common jail. Smith is the man who recently assaulted Turnkey Somerville at the local jail.

FIRST CHURCH SERVICES

Rev. A. H. MacGillivray, pastor of First Church, was unable to officiate at the services of his church yesterday on account of illness. Mr. MacGillivray was taken suddenly ill on Saturday night, but his many friends will be pleased to learn that his illness is not serious, and that he is now recovering from his temporary attack.

Upon very short notice, Rev. Mr. McLean, of this city, was asked to preach at the services yesterday on both occasions. Mr. McLean gave two excellent addresses, and the services were bright and interesting. Large congregations were present both morning and evening.

The music at both services was bright and spirited. In the morning Miss Peate, the contralto soloist of the church, sang a solo, "No Cross, But Crown," in excellent voice, and in the evening a selection was given by the First Church male quartet.

ROUGH SPEAKING AND FALSE BELIEFS

Planet evidently referred to, and whose name is Abe Savage, did call on him. It was claimed in the article that Mr. Savage was instrumental in converting this unfortunate man while he was in the hospital. I am assured by this man since the article came out that this is not so. Mr. Savage, however, visited him after he came to the House of Refuge, and without the consent of the management, they started services on Sunday morning. "Now as a matter of fact the different religious denominations of the city have banded themselves together to provide services for the inmates every Sunday afternoon. This arrangement has the sanction of the County Council, who are anxious that the inmates shall receive all the religious teaching that it is possible to give them. I explained this to Mr. Savage, and I also told him that two members from two different churches of the city had complained to me that they objected to his preaching, because he is not a church member. They also objected to his style of preaching. These two men went further to say that if Mr. Savage would connect himself to some church they would be pleased to accept his help at their services at the House of Refuge. I invited him to come and the services in the afternoons, but he did not accept this invitation.

"The County Council, in my opinion, deserves every credit for the trouble to which they have gone to provide religious services and luxuries for the inmates of the House. They have even gone so far as to provide an organist for the services. The people of the city, who go out there to preach deserve great credit also. They do it free of charge, while in Lambton, the Council has to engage a preacher to conduct the services, and then it is often hard work to get one to go, for this reason these people should not have their services interfered with by outsiders. We can't throw open the institution for everyone who wants to go out there to preach. There has to be some system. To my knowledge there has only been one Sunday that preaching was not held at the House of Refuge during the last four years.

"There is another side to it. Every time there is a service at the House of Refuge, all those old people have to be prepared for it and taken into the room. This means work for me, which is often burdensome. If you ask anyone who is acquainted with the conditions as they are, they will tell you that if people are got together for one service a day, it is enough work for any one man to do. Besides, I feel that I should be privileged to go to church once a Sunday, and when there is a morning service at the House, I am denied that privilege.

"Some of the old people also do not enjoy the service conducted by Mr. Savage. It is certainly a unique service, which in my opinion is not of the most inspiring character. He asks the old people to get up and tell their experiences. If they are slow in getting up, or if they hesitate, he calls out "Come on. Get up and spit it out of you!" He also says "right out before those old people that he does not believe in baptism either by immersion or by sprinkling. This is directly opposite to the teachings of the Christian religion, and those old people are in such a feeble frame of mind that they believe pretty nearly everything they hear. This kind of instruction is objected to by the other people who preach out there, and they are quite right in raising their objections.

"The other members of Mr. Savage's band are "Old Joe," who preaches on the Park, and a man from the Salvation Army, who does the singing. I have nothing to say against any of these gentlemen, but I must insist that they shall not interfere with the management of the House of Refuge, and must not disorganize the system by which the institution is run. In that I am upheld by the House of Refuge committee of the County Council. If they wish to assist the old people they are at perfect liberty to come on Sunday afternoons and work in conjunction with those who have organized for the purpose of giving religious instruction to the inmates of the House."

METAL WORKERS' LOSE.

Privy Council Refuse Appeal Against Canadian Judgment.

London, July 13.—(C. A. P.)—The Privy Council have refused leave to appeal in forma pauperis to Jose and others versus the Metallic Roofing Company. There is no order regarding costs.

Judgment against the Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers was given by Judge McMahon for $7,500, as damages for picketing. The court of appeal confirmed the judgment.

Two Men Drowned.

Ottawa, July 13.—James Mulligan of Aylmer, Que., and Louis Malloch of Ottawa were drowned in the Ottawa River yesterday afternoon. They were engaged upon Georgian Bay Canal survey work, and were bringing a punter boat down the river to Pinery Harbor. Just above Chateau Falls they were drawn into one of the chutes and carried over the falls. A third man, named George Dalgleish, escaped.

Mulligan, who was formerly in the Yukon, leaves a widow and young family. Malloch was 25 years of age. Another sad circumstance is that the latter's brother was drowned at Ste. Basile, Que., only about a month ago.

LITERARY

The articles of special interest which appear in the July number of the Cosmopolitan are—Children as They are Pictured, by Sidney Alan; Pinched, which is a continuation of Jack Loudon's experience in the world; The Kings of Mexico, by Chas. Ed. Russell; The Chemical House, by Jack Built, by Theodore Waters, which shows how every possible substance that is thrown away as waste comes back to us in some form.

The Theater's Responsibility, by Alan Dale; and Spinners in the Dark, by Edwin Markham. The Crucible is the serial story, and this supplemented by nine short stories and several poems, which combine to make a most attractive number.

The third part of The Charm of Cottage Architecture, in the South-west, by Henrietta P. Keith, appears in the July number of Keith's Magazine. This is an article which describes some of the charming homes of California, with suggestions of how they might be adapted to our more rigorous climate. The second part appeared in the January and March numbers. Reconstruction of a Country House tells of how an old country house was turned into a beautiful and convenient house.

The first of a series of six articles on Modern Plumbing for the House is given: Kitchen Plumbing receives attention this month, and a model kitchen is both described and illustrated. Plumbing is one of the most important things about a house, and at the same time, is what is least understood by the average householder, and these papers should prove of great value to all readers. There are many beautiful designs and plans for small homes and the regular department is full of timely, practical subjects. Published by Max L. Keith, Minneapolis, at 15c. per copy, or $1.50 per annum.

DIES IN CHASING TRAIN.

Animal Trainer With Hargreave's Circus Found Dead.

Lindsay, July 13.—A German dog trainer named Schultz, with Hargreave's Circus, which exhibited here yesterday, was found dead at Cavendish and Berkton on the C.P.R.

Deceased had probably missed the circus train when it stopped at a small station and tried to catch it by running. Heart failure intervened, and he fell by the railroad. No mark was discovered on his body.

The circus train stopped when he was missed, but continued when word came that he was found with life extinct.

Toronto, July 13.—The Municipal and Railway Board will meet on Monday, July 29, and after the business is disposed of that may come before the board on that day there will not be another session until Tuesday, Sept. 3, the day after Labor Day.

During July and August the members of the board intend to go over all the street railways, electric railways and steam railways under their jurisdiction between Owen Sound and Barrie. The board has already been over the Port Arthur system.

The object of inspecting the roads is to see that they are complying with the law respecting brakes, fenders, fares and other particulars. A general inspection in a broad way is intended, and the board will endeavor to see things under normal conditions.

Case Postponed.

Brandon, July 13.—The case of W. P. Pearson, charged with refusing to allow his daughter, who is suffering from diphtheria, to be taken to the Brandon hospital, will, it is announced, be further adjourned when the case comes up Monday.

The matter has been presented to the Deputy Attorney-General. Mr. Oatwright will communicate with the head of the Provincial Health Department before the case comes to court.

NOT EXACTLY.

This meat protests the boarder, is overdone. Not exactly, it ain't, replied the waitress; it's done over.

A cheerful countenance betokens a good heart.

BAD SIDEWALK

A stretch of bad sidewalk which certainly stands in need of repair is that running along the easterly side of Queen street, between the G. T. R. tracks and Indian Creek. There are several holes in it, and a number of accidents through falls on it are reported. The Council should take some action before they are confronted with a suit for damages.

It has been suggested that as there is no sidewalk on the other side of the street, that the property owners on the westerly side should be made to pay a share towards its construction and maintenance.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, prolapses, inflammation and debilitating, catarrhal drains and in all cases of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has to its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for woman's use.

All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, which he can afford to do, as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination and debility, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

NUISANCE MUST STOP.

Blast Furnaces Must Consume Dust or Close.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 13.—Judge Young, in the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday rendered a decision to the effect that the Jones & Laughlin Steel Co. must either procure a device to prevent the emission of ore dust from its blast furnaces or close the furnaces. Should it become necessary to shut down the plant, 10,000 men will be thrown out of employment in the Jones & Laughlin Co. alone.

As a result of the decision the residents of other districts similarly afflicted are expected to enter suits to compel the furnace companies to either eradicate the dust or shut down their furnaces.

An appeal from Judge Young's decision was immediately taken to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

In connection with his decision yesterday Judge Young imposed heavy fines on officers and the directors of the company for failing to comply with an order to stop the nuisance.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Gentlemen,—Last August my horse was badly out in eleven places by a barbed wire fence. Three of the cuts (small ones) healed soon, but the others, some food between rotten and though I tried many kinds of medicine they had no beneficial result. At last a doctor advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT and in four weeks' time every sore was healed and the hair has grown over each one in fine condition. The Liniment was certainly wonderful in its working.
