The Modern Ballot.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JUNE 26, 1896.

The Result of the Elections.

The elections for Dominion pariliment on Tuesday resulted in the overthrow of the government and the election to power of the Liberal party. The opposition have made gains in every precince, with the exception of Prince Edward Island, and have taken Quebee by storm. It is estimated that they will have a majority of forty when the house meets. We have no hesitation in saying that the result has been a surprise to all concerned.

In the county Dr Borden has been realected, with a majority of veryly five hundred. Following are the returns an near as could be gathered:

The spectacle of a great nation going quictly up to the polls on a certain fixed day to register their decision as to what meet shall manage their government for the next five years and what policy shall prevail during that period, is one of the most impressive of these modern days to in liberal during that period, is one of the most impressive of these modern days to in liberal during that period, is one of the most impressive of these modern days to include their prevail during that period, is one of the most impressive of these modern days to invest a significant to the prevail during that period, is one of the most impressive of these modern days to invest a significant that they will have a majority of forty when the country that a significant their decision as to what meet shall manage their government for the next five years and what policy shall prevail during that period, is one of the most five years and what policy shall prevail during that period, is one of the most five years and what policy shall prevail during that period, is one of the most five years and what policy shall prevail during that period, is one of the most five years and what policy shall prevail during that period, is one of the most five years and what policy shall prevail during that period, is one of the most five years and what policy shall prevail during that period, is one of the most five years and w The spectacle of a great nation goin
