Why He Did Not Drink.

'I read the other day of four young men riding in a Pullman car chatting merrily together. At last one of them said, 'Boys, I think it's time for drinks.' Two of them consented; the other shook his head and said: 'No, I thank you.' 'What,' exclaimed his companions, 'have you become pious? Are you going to preach? Do you think you will become a missionary?' 'No,' he replied, 'fellows, I am not specially pious, and and I may not become a missionary; but I have decided not to drink another drop, and I will tell you why: I had some business in Chicago with an old pawnbroker, and as I stood before his counter talking about it, there came in a young man about my age, and threw down upon the counter a little bundle. When the pawnbroker opened it he found it was a pair of baby's shoes, with the buttons a trifle worn. The old pawnbroker seemed to have some heart left in him, and he said, 'Look here, you ought not to sell your baby's shoes for drink.' 'Never mind, Cohen; baby is at home dead, and does not need the shoes.' 'Give me ten cents for a drink.' Now, fellows, I have a wife and baby at home myself, and when I saw what liquor could do in degrading that husband and father I made up my mind that, God helping me, not a drop of the infernal stuff would ever pass my lips again.'—The Rev. A. C Dixon.

Boys and Smoking-Effects of Habit.

A medical man, recently struck with the large number of boys under fifteen years of age whom he observed smoking, was lead to inquire into the effect the habit had upon the general health. He took for his purpose thirty-eight boys, aged from nine to fifteen, and carefully examined them. In twenty-two there were various disorders of the circulation and digestion, palpitation of the heart, and a more or less decided taste for strong drink. In twelve there were frequent bleedings of the nose, ten had disturbed sleep, and twelve had slight ulcertration of the mucous membrane of the mouth which disappeared on discontinuing the use of tobacco for some days. The doctor treated them all for weakness but with little effect until the smoking was stopped, when health and strength were soon restored.—'League Journal.'

An Insidious Sin.

The one reason why we have to guard against this sin of intemperance with such extraordinary care is the fact that it, of all sins, insinuates itself into the fibre of the nature, and immediately it begins to affect the character Do not think of it as a robe that may have been slipped over and when it becomes uncomfortable you will fling it off. It is a garment like that Hercules wore: it is soaked in every thread and fibre with poison, and the poison will soon begin to go into your system.

It does not matter how honorable and straightforward a man is before he falls beneath the power of this vice. You are as simple as a child if you expect that in a year, after, in that man, the very elements of virtue or of strength will remain. You know that is true: you that there are men whose foreheads would once have mantled with a genuine blush if charged with falsehood; they would deny a fact now and look into your eye. And you know that man will descend to the low, despicable cunning of a savage; no ingenuity has ever been discovered short of absolute confinement that will restrain that man from ruining himself, and he will practice any amount of deceit to obtain the poison which is his destruction. His character begins just simply to crumble away, like the foundation of a house when the water is running beneath it You cannot depend upon the word of a man who has fallen under the power of vice.

This sin comes into the house like a serpent We can keep out of any other sin; not this one. Your child, the little fellow who used to sit beside you, who used to nestle against you in the church—you see his face tonight: do you know where he is? He whom you loved, now an outcast. You are silent. What do you propose to do to counteract and destroy this terrible evil? Have you any plan? What do you propose to do to save your children from the power of this vice? How do you propose to save your friend? Are you just going to let him slip? It is worth all your thought, all your trouble, all your pain, if you could rescue one single man or woman, although it is just about hopeless, rescue them. Try. If you could rescue one man or woman, it would be the greatest achievement of your life.—Rev. J. Watson.

HIS NERVES PLAYED OUT

And Health Broke Down A Life Saved by The Timely Use of Ferrozone.

Mr Karl E Newsome, of Rothesay, writes: 'I owe a debt of gratitude to Ferrozone which saved my life after a severs seige of Nervous Prostration. About a year ago my health gave out completely. I was in such a weak, irritable condition that I couldn't work, and found that the doctors did nothing for me but take my money. My druggist recommended Ferrozone as the best preparation for nervous troubles, so I commenced to take one tablet at meals. Every box of Ferrozone I took seemed to do me more good than the previous one, and it wasn't very long before I was strong enough to move around again. In three months I was completely cured, and I know that I wouldn't be alive to-day if I hadn't used Ferrozone. It braced up my nerves, gave me a strong healthy constitution, and is certainly a marvellous restorer and tonic for nervous people.''

The reason Ferrozone is so successful in curing nervous disease is that it contains the very elements that are needed to restore the wasted nerve cells. It is a nourishing, strengthening, tonic that costs 50c. per box containing three weeks' treatment. Six boxes for $2.50. Sold by all druggists or by mail from the Ferrozone Company, Kingston, Ont. Don't fail to get Ferrozone to-day, it assures health.

Yeats, the Irish poet, says his French is as bad as the English of the Frenchman he met in Paris at one time. When he asked about a young woman he was informed that she was ill. He expressed sympatay and asked, 'What is ze mattress?' 'Oh, you mean, 'what is the matter?' corrected the poet. 'But,' objected the Frenchman, 'is it not of ze femine gendaire we speak?'

S., writes us, 'After taking two boxes of Dr. Clarke's Little Red Pills for indigestion, which I had been troubled with for a number of years, I am now perfectly well, I followed the directions carefully.'

To every one sending for a trial order and finding good results we ask to observe our special order enclosed with every box. Its of special interest to every one. If your druggist has not the pills in stock, send direct to the office of Canada Chemical Company, Peterborough, Ontario, Canada.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

MR. EDITOR,—

"Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper has officially stated that he will not be a candidate in the coming elections. He has been Halifax's representative for more than twenty years, and he is a much poorer man financially than when he entered politics. He will assist the other candidates in the coming campaign, but after that his attention will be devoted exclusively to his legal work."

The foregoing item was taken from a recent issue of the Western Chronicle and is certainly in bold contrast with the history of the present Ministers of the Dominion Cabinet, some of whom within one third of the parliamentary period of Sir Hibbert Tupper have arisen from dire indigence to buoyant affluence. A notable example is Mr Sifton, who from an humble cottager of the prairie can now luxuriate in his palatial Ottawa residence, live at the rate of twenty or thirty thousand dollars a year, give thousand dollar tea parties, sport his magnificent yacht and is reported to be worth into the hundreds of thousands. And this has all come to him within the short period of six or seven years of parliamentary life. There has been big money in politics for Clifford Sifton. It was an easy matter for a few of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's faithful to present him with a nice little sum of one hundred thousand dollars as a gift. Where did the money come from? Sir John A. McDonald spent his whole life of upwards of fifty years in politics, a larger part of which time he was a Cabinet Minister and yet died a poor man, and the same may be said of Sir John Thompson. It is interesting to observe also how their HARD WORKED Cabinet Ministers who hardly spend time enough in the departments at Ottawa to attend the Parliamentary Sessions, are seeking out new fields for employing their time, money and talents in lifting up and elevating the moral standard of the people. In regard to this new project the Christian Guardian, a paper published in Toronto under the authority of the Methodist Church, asks: "Are we to have a Canadian Turf?" and continues:—

"An Ottawa despatch intimates that the Canada Gazette announces the incorporation of Sir Frederick Borden, Hon. Sydney E. Fisher, Hon. Clifford Sifton, Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick, and other more or less well known people, into a company to be known as the "Ottawa Racing Association, Limited," with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, for the following purposes: "The acquisition of real estate in the city of Ottawa or in the neighborhood thereof, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining thereon a racecourse and steeplechase course, with grand stands, stables, and all the accessories of a modern racecourse, and for the establishment and maintenance of a racing association, jockey club and hunt club, and for the purpose also of establishing and maintaining one or more social clubs in connection with the said racing association, and generally for the purpose of encouraging and promoting horse-racing and horse riding, and social intercourse among persons interested in such matters." This organized and capitalized effort for encouraging and promoting horse-racing looks like an endeavor to import into Canada what is known in England as the Turf. The importation and establishment of the Turf and its accessories will be no blessing to Canada but rather a great curse. For the accessories of the English Turf are betting, gambling, and not a few concomitant practices inuring to the corruption of morals. The Turf in England is, we know, patronized by 'society.' But the patronage of society, including King, Lords, and Commons, has not purified the English Turf, as everybody knows. And what English 'society,' including King, Lords and Commons, has not done, we do not think Canadian 'society' can do. Therefore, we regret and deprecate this new departure.

This noble enterprise we should expect to receive the sanction and applause of the miserable sinners, but what shall we say it some Clergymen and lay Christians who preach, exhort against and condemn wickedness, gambling and rascality generally say about these things and yet uphold them? In view of these facts and the infamous and diabolical political disclosures and exposures made during the past few years in the Province of Ontario no unprejudiced man can honestly contend that Liberalism in this Dominion is not demoralizing the people of the country.

INDEPENDENT.

Restless and Cross.

When infants or young children are restless or cross and peevish it is a very certain sign that they are not well. The mother may not know just what the trouble is, but she can depend upon it the trouble exists. Give the little one Baby's Own Tablets see how promptly it will be changed into a happy, smiling, good natured child. The little one will sleep soundly and naturally and the mother will also obtain her much needed rest. Here is the proof given by Mrs John E. Ramsay, Port Hill, P. E. I., who says:—'My baby was cross, restless and did not sleep well, but after giving him Baby's Own Tablets he became better natured, sleeps well and is growing finely. The Tablets have been a great blessing to both baby and myself.'

The Tablets are a prompt and certain cure for such troubles as indigestion, sour stomach, colic, constipation, diarrhœa, simple fevers and other minor ailments. They always do good and cannot possibly harm the most delicate child. You can get the Tablets from any medicine dealer, or they will be sent by mail at 25 cents a box by writing to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Stomach Troubles.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by G. V. Rand.

Her Shoulder Dislocated.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balsam advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. For sale by G. V. Rand.

In a Run Down Nervous Condition

Subject to headache, headache and dizziness for years—cured by Dr. Chase.

MRS. ANDREW HOWEY, St. John Street, Fredericton, N.B., states:—"Last spring I had a sickness which left me in a very run down, nervous state. In fact, for a number of years I have suffered to a great extent with nervousness, and frequently had attacks of headache and dizziness. I also seemed to be very weak and was also troubled with pains in the small of the back.

"I have spent a great deal of money for medicine but obtained little or no relief until I began taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and Kidney-Liver Pills, and can say that the results of this combined treatment have been most remarkable. I never had any medicine build me up like the Nerve Food, and I give the credit for curing the pains in my back to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I cannot speak too well of these remedies since they have done me so much good." To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

Scrawny People.

People grow thin, scrawny, pale and weak when the blood is thin and watery. What is needed to round off the angles and fill out the form is not fat but healthy muscular tissue. By enriching the blood and increasing its nourishing qualities Dr. Chase's Nerve Blood adds new flesh and tissue to the body as well as new energy and vigor. There was a wedding yesterday in Graceless Church.

Lord Baldnob, of Kiltshire, Eng., married Miss Sallie Panhandle, of East Pittsburg.

The bridal party, including the attorneys for both sides formed in the alcove promptly at 11.30.

At 11.45 the real estate in the bride's name was transferred to his lordship.

At 11.50 a million dollars in legal tender changed hands.

At high noon all the railroad first mortgage bonds known to be the bride's possessions were handed over.

A vote of thanks was then passed to his lordship for leaving the bride's father enough to live on comfortably until the next rise in Wall street, which is predicted for next spring.
