MONTREAL, Jan. 16.—Among the items of political gossip afloat is one to the effect that Premier Mercier's health is far from satisfactory, and that if he does not improve he may be compelled to temporarily leave public life and rest for several months. He has a permanent enlargement of the liver, and often is given to vomiting blood, especially in the morning, or after a long speech. Though physically strong he has been very seriously ill at times. His family and friends are doing all they can to induce him to take a needed rest, but he persists in seeing to all, and it is no secret that nothing is done in any of the Departments, no matter how trivial it may be, without his knowledge. In the House he is always au fait on all guestions, and he makes it a point to be thoroughly well informed on everyful thing. It is understood that his physician has advised him to refrain from speaking as much as possible, and not to speak at all in the open air In this connection it is talked of as probable that the Hon. Francoi league of Mr. Mercier in the Joil Administration, will give up his sea
