San Francisco, June 27.—Fire started ahortly before 6 o'clock to-night in the rear of the San Francisco box factory, located at Fifth and Harrison streets. Before the department reached the ground the flames threatened the scoth side of the city. It was 9.45 before the fire was under control. In addition to the destruction of the mills, factories, foundries and hotel, over 50 dwellings were carryed. Three hundred families are homeless, though some of them managed to save a portion of their goods. Thus far no authentic account of loss of life, if any, is given out. A conservative estimate of the loss is $1,000,000. Insurance about $800,000. An explosion of powder, San Francisco, June 27.-Fire started about $800,000. aminations, &c., were submitted to the council.

At the afternoon session Dr. Barriok moved that the report of the Printing Countities be reconsidered, but, after some discussion, this was negatived on a vote of sighteen to nine.

In further discussing the Educational report Dr. Brittsin explained the proposed changes in the medical ourriculum which had been suggested by the changes in the university curriculum. These were these instead of the University pass matriculation, second-disas honors be required in English, French, biology, physics, zoology and chemistry. The educational resources of today, and the facilities for preliminary, he send, warranted a higher standard.

Dr. Campbell, while personally in favor of a higher standard of education, called attention to the fact that there is a public feeling that the council in raising the standard is actuated by a wish to lessen compesition. The terms of this motion would strengthen that opinion, he said, and it was better to make haste slowly. He concluded by moving in amendment that the clause be struck out and a declaration inserted in its place that it was not advisable at present to alter the standard. Dr. Shaw supported this, holding that this change, which was practically the addition of a year to the course, was too radical.

Dr. Sangster agreed as to the importance of the question of the elevation of the matriculation tandard. So many interests had to be considered that the report must be somewhat in the nature of a compromise. Public opinion had to be considered, he said, and if it was the case that there were 1,500 more medical men in the Province than were required the matter almost amounted to a calamity. He agreed to the need of the medical men of today of a thorough education, and he maintained that a high matriculation standard would not favor the rich man's son as against the poor man's son.

The amendment was beaten and the proposed curriculum adopted.

The report recommended that no action be taken by the council with regard to a communication from the West Toronto Association concerning ledge practice, the subject not being in the jurisdiction of the council. After some discussion the council agreed with this view.

The Board of Examiners recommended by the committee was then passed. Dr. A. A. Madonald's place as examiner in midwifery was filled by Dr. Henry Howitt of Guelph.

minutery was nined by Thenry how to Gueiph.

The committee reported against Dr. Henry's motion to raise the registration fee from $20 to $50, and the council sanctioned this.

Dr. Regers then submitted the bylaw to impose the annual assessment once more on the members of the profession of $2 a year, the payment of such being enforced by the erasure of the names of non-payers from the register.

In moving this Dr. Rogers laid down three propositions: that the tax was also lutely needed for the finances of the council, that the fee being necessary to be fair it should be paid by all, and that the means propesed were the only efficient means of collecting the tax. Dr. Rogers then referred to the attacks made on the British Medical Association imposed the tax, but the council held no examinations, cid not give very efficient protection again, t quacks and had a far larger income than the Ontario society, so that the cases were not parallel, while there was what is equivalent to a tax in the high registration fee, the association's control of the British pharmacopecia and its charge for its annual register. The scheme of dropping off members for non-payment of dues, with privilege of reinstatement, was better than suing them in the Division Courts.

Dr. Thornton said that they had a deficit and wanted to know how it occurred. Since 1866 three had been, leaving the building out, a surplus in all of $55,000. They had put in $28,000, and where was the rest? They had been bleading the profession to the amount of some $25,000 which which had been paid, and had made no effort to remove the cause. He thought they should do that. He then remarked profession to the amount of some $25,000 which which had been paid, and had made no effort to remove the cause. He thought they should do that. He then remarked that the Law Society had no property held for speculative purposes, and so was not in a parallel position to the college. His concititency was very strongly op posed to the assessment, he added. Dr. McLaughlia said that the council possessed powers such as no other body had, and which were a diegrace to it; as an instance, a retired physician who left his door plate out might be imprisoned. He referred to the Law Society, holding that it was not parallel to the council. Dr. Logan took exceptions to some of the references to the homeopaths. If the council did not wish to have them in it, they would have to go out, and they would expect the ril of the council brfore the Legit lature in establishing them. Dr. Sangster said that the Medical profession was not an ungenerous one, and that if the council had gone to it with that if the council had gone to it with a frank admission that it had got into fine-culties, and had asked for hep, a generous answer would have been given, but that, instead of that, occerive measures had been adopted. this tax would be taken by the profession as a declaration of war. The discussion was adjourned Dr. Williams then got through Committee of the Whole the report of his committee, to fix the pay of members of the council at $12.50 per day, and four cents per mile travelling allowance. Dr. Brock suggested that a sessional allowance of of $100 be made, but this met with no favor, and was withdrawn. The bylaw embodying this regulation was then introduced and passed through its various stages. The council then adjourned shortly before midnight.

Proceedings went quietly along until an expenditure for dredging the Kaministiqua River was reached. The Opposition assertained from the Minister by diat of questioning that the work had been given to Marka & Macdonald without tenders being asked for. This proceeding was criticized by Meszrs. Gibson and McMullen, who gave as, the reason for it. Marks & Macdonald's friendship to the Government.

Macdonald's friendship to the Government.

Mr. Madonall, member for Algoma, came to the defence of the Minister of Works. No other dredging plant than Marks & Madonald's was in Lake Superior, and none would have been taken up there to do this for $5.000. The dredging had been cheaply done by hours' work, he declared in conclusion.

This latter declaration proved unfortunate for the Minister. Upon it Sir Richard. Cartwright attacked the expenditure from a new point. The Minister had clearly acted illegally, he retorted in giving this dredging without tender. Moreover, the Minister should have been warned that days' work or hours' work was not an economical way of performing public works after the country's experience with a geatieman by the name of St. Louis.

MR. CUMET'S OUTBURST.

The first annual sports of the Guelph Amateur Athletic Association were held in the Park last night, commencing shortly after 6 o'clock. The attendance was not large at first, but before many events had come off there were a large number present. The encouragement of such legitimate sport is commendable, and this reason, no doubt, brought many of the citizens out, who do not usually attend such affairs. The prime movers in the G. A. A. A. scheme have had hard work to place the Association on a good footing, and bring it prominently before the public. The work so far has been all uphill, but as long as such events as last night's are kept up and more added to the list each year, which undoubtedly will be done, they need have no fear of not getting generous support from the public. The athletes from the O. A. College, who attended the sports last night; sevent the board taking first and second been discourteous enough and shown the bad taste to attack me. I suppose when the name 6t. Louis is spoken I must close my mouth and take the castigation. I am not ashamed of St. Louis, or of anything he has done. If he has done anything he has done. If he has done anything he has done if he has not been punished it is not my fault nor that of the hon gentlemen around me. He is able to defend himself. (Opposition hear, hears) Yes, hear, hear. If you knew the name of St. Louis in Montreal, where he has been honestly prosecuting his trade year after year—(Opposition hear, hear), hear, hear. Itell you a good many tends hear, hear. Itell you a good many tends and the standard on think any better of hon gentlemen public. The athletes from the O. A. C., took first, and Wateon, eity, 2nd, Ponting, O. A. C., 3rd. The reason is not far to seek. The development of the muscles is almost a part of the cirriculum at the college, while the sports in the city neglect to do any training till the eleventh hour when they expect to carry cff the honors. In the putting of the 16 lb. shot there were six entries, all from the city. T. S. Phipps, put it 34 ft, 4 inches, and took first prize; Frank Snyder, 2nd, 33 ft, 7 in; T. H. After some further discussion the item passed, but not before the Opposition had strongly condemned the practice in vogue under this Government of setting aside he law and letting public works without tender whenever a colorable exonse for doing so can be found.

This year's estimates, however, present a revival of the business of locating public buildings where they are not needed and solely for political ends. The postoffice which it is proposed to erect in Marysville, N.B., excited unusual interest. Marysville is in the county which enjoys the distinction of possessing the Fraderican and St. Mary's bridge, and which is to first prize; Frank Snyder, 2nd, 33 tt., in; T. H. Sir Richard described the vote as bril ery pure and simple. The Opposition would not let it pass, and the item stood. The discussion was renewed upon subsequent vote for a public building a Rimouski. In this village Mr. Mo Mule erected. Rimouski is represented by one of the Ministers.

Mr. Laurier introduced a variation. The Minister having expressed the Government's intention to rent a postoffice building in the village of Laurentides for $300 a year, the leader of the Opposition passed some severe strictures upon the propeition. Laurentides, he said, is a small village, with postal receipts of only $787, and this building for which $300 a year is to be paid had not brought its owner more than $36 a year for the past fifteen years.

years. Mr. Ouimet said that this was an experiment. He himself believed that it would be cheaper to rent postoffice buildings than to build them and afterwards keep them up.

Hull, manufacturer of Hull's weather strip, was found about 2.30 p. m. today cold in death, with his throat out from ear to ear and his murderer lying over him with his throat also horribly out, but still conscious. It would appear that the murderer is insane. The man lives in Martin-ville, where he has a wife and four children. J. H. Hull was a resident of this place and was an intimate friend of Mark Sheborn, the man who took his life. For the last six or eight weeks Sherborn has been alling and was considered out of his mind, and Hull was in the habit of taking care of him. Hull was probably asleep when the deed was committed. The murderer is still living, and has been taken to Sherbrooke in the ambulance. The doctors think that there, is some hope of his recovery.

The Bank Cashier Accused. Duluth, Minn., June 26.—Another sensation has been sprung in the Rainy Lake bank robbery case. W. W. Butler, the cashier, who was held up and robbed, is openly charged with having put up the job to defraud the depositors. This afternoon F. Ford and Thomas Adams, depositors in the bank, retained counsel to begin proceedings against Butler. The latter, who is still in the city, declares the charge is spite work.

Pickic in Salem.—The pupils comprising the Salem public school held a very successful picnic in Mr. Watt's grove, near that village, on Thursday. A large number of the children and their friends were present. Refreshments were on the grounds, which were liberally partaken of, and together with games of all kinds a most enjoyable time was spent. During the afternoon a football match took place between Middlebrook and Salem, which lasted over an hour, neither side scoring a goal. It was a most interesting games. Towards the close of the day's programmesongs, recitations, etc., were given by the children in a most creditable manner. The accompaniments were most accompaniments of the picnic can be attributed.

Advertises: On Thursday afternoon last William Gillespie, son of John Gillespie; of Amranth, was as nex being killed as, he could be. He was cleaning out a well on a term of his father's, a couple of milesfrom the Gillespie homestend, assisted by his father. William had filled a heavy bucket at the bottom of the well and the father had drawn it to the top with a windlass and a stout rope. Just as the bucket was about to land the rope broke and the bucket fell to the bottom of the well—35 feet below. Fortunately young Gillespie had taken the precaution to brace the long-handled shovel he wasusing across the well, above his head, while the bucket was ascending, and this foreth ughis saved his life. The bucket amsahed the shovel and atruck Gillespie or the side of the tace, tearing his ear, bally smashed the shovel and struck Gillespie on the side of that ace, tearing his ear, badly and breaking his collar bone. His father immediately descended the well by means of the wooden supports on the sides. Fitteen feet from the bottom the bucket had struck one of these supports and knocked it off, and when Gillespie reached this he missed his tooting and fell. He was badly shaken up, but alighted on his feet. The father found his son insensible. He was drawn out the well with a rope and is now doing well.
