Fame Wealth Life and Death.

What is fame?

"Tis the sun gleam on the mountains Spreading brightly ere it flies;
"Its the bubble on the fountain, Rising lightly ere it dies;
Or, if here and there a hero
Be remembered through the years,
Yet to him the gain is zero,
Death has stilled his hopes and fears
Yet what danger men will dare
If but only in the air
May be heard some eager mention of

What is wealth?
Tis a rainbow, still receding
As the panting fool pursues,
Or a toy that youth unheeding
Seeks the readiest way to lose,
But the wise man keeps due,
Neither out of breath nor base,
He but holds in trust his treasures
For the welfare of his race
Yet what crimes some men will dare
But to gain their slender share n some profit, though with loss of nam and health.

What is life?
Tis the earthly hour of trial
For a life that's but begun;
When the prize of self denial
May be quickly lost or won;
Tis the hour when love may bourge
To an ever lasting flower
Or when lusts their victims urge on
To def vimmortal power. To defy immortal power,
Yet how lightly men ignore
All the future holds in store,
Spending brief but golden moments a in strife
Or in suicidal madness grasps the knife

What is death?
Past its dark, mysterious portal
Human eye may never roam;
Yet the hope still springs immortal
That it leads the wanderer home,
Oh the bliss that lies before us,
When the secret shall be known,
And the yast angelie choryus. And the vast angelic chorous Sounds the hymn before the thr What is fame, or wealth or life? Past are praises, fortune, strife, All but love that lives forever, cast
