VOL LIL

HAMILTON, CANADA, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1909.

NO. 227.

NEW INDIAN LIST READY

And Inspector Sturdy Says It Will Not Fail.

Names on It to the Total of Twenty-Three.

Where the Flaw Was In Many Former Notices.

If any of those people whose names are on the Indian list are prosecuted for a breach of the Liquor Act after next Wednesday, it is safe to assume the penalty of the law will be made to the penalty of the law will be made to fit the crime. Quite recently there has been considerable comment on the prosecutions of those who were supposed to be "listed" falling through, and on every hand the question asked has been, "What is the reason?"

Neither License Inspector Sturdy nor the Magistrate was to blame. To place a man or woman on the Indian list the license inspector musts be notified by some near relative upon a form fur-license inspector mustable notified by some near relative upon a form furnished to said relative by the inspector. Then a notice is served on every hotel-keeper and license-holder in the city that such a person must not be served with intoxicating liquor. The form of notice to the liquor license holder must have the holder's name on it, the name of the man or woman prohibited, and have the holder's name on it, the name of the man or woman prohibited, and must be signed by the license inspector.

Apparently, owing to a mistake or oversight in the past the names of the license holders have not been filled in. Consequently there was no proof that they had personally received a notice. However, that matter has all been straightened out after a deal of hard work by Inspector Sturdy, and he has now twenty-three names on the list, and says after next Wednesday if a case he has in court falls through it will not be his fault.

his fault.

There is considerable difficulty in serving the information on the prohibited person. Yesterday afternoon Inspector Sturdy showed the Times a bundle of letters sent to "listed" people that had been returned unopened, as they had an idea of the contents and refused to take them from the postman. refused to take them from the postman. The inspector has even gone to the trouble of registering many of them and sending the information in a plain envelope, but even then they have smelt the proverbial "rat." Magistrate Jelfs, however, has held that where the postman has known the party to whom the letter was addressed to be living in the house it will be sufficient evidence that the necessary information has been served.

served.

When spoken to about the recent Chatham case, where a man who was on the Indian list and merely asked for a drink was heavily fined and only escaped a month's imprisonment on account of his siek son, Magistrate Jelfs said the same penalty could have been imposed here, had the necessary papers been properly served and sufficient evidence furnished to support the cases.

HAPPY EVENT.

Miss Willmot Hutton Married to Fred. W. Cross.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 1.30 at the home of Mrs. Francis R. Hutton, 122 Hughson street south, when her only daughter, Willmot Sibylla Hutton, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Fred W. Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cross, of this city. Rev. J. C. Sycamore performed the ceremony, and the contracting parties were unattended, only a few of the relatives and friends being present. The bride was gowned in silk batiste and carried white roses. After a dainty wedding breakfast had been served, the happy young couple left for a trip to Montreal and other eastern points, and on their return will reside on Hughson street south.

The bride's going away gown was a green tailor-made suit.

Special Services Mark Hebrews Solemn Feast To-day.

ATONEMENT.

The Hebrews to-day celebrated th ost sacred of Jewish holy days, the Day of Atonement, which was ordained by Moses when the Children of Israel

Day of Atonement, which was ordained by Moses when the Children of Israel were near the thunders of Sinai. The services commenced last evening at sundown, about 5.30, and will continue until the same time this evening. Special services were held and the synagogues were filled to capacity.

The services last evening commenced with the singing of the most sacred song, which pleads for forgiveness for broken vows during the past year. Besides the service in the synagogues last evening, another one was held this morning.

The law, which ordains abstimence from food from sunset last evening until the same time to-night, is most rigorous, and the Jews remained in the synagogues from 7 o'clock this morning until the close of the celebration. To the younger mind such an ordeal is not appealing, but in most instances the children accompanied their fathers to the service.

At present it is not compulsory for minors under 13 years of age and others weak from illness to abstain from eating.

Rabbi Friedlander had charge of the ing.

Rabbi Friedlander had charge of the services at the Hughson street synagogue, and Rabbi Foster at the Hunter street synagogue.

Persons Who Know.

Our twenty-eight cent tea is used by persons who know and persons who want to know what a really good tea is at a very reasonable price. It is packed in airtight packages, then shipped direct to us by the man who grows it. We huy it by the ton, and sell several tons during the year. Sold only by Bain &

Dr. Cook as He Looks To-day The Man

FIRST POSED PORTRAIT OF THE NORTH POLE DISCOVERER SINCE HIS RETURN FROM THE FROZEN ARCTIC.

REMANDED.

Close of Sessions.

Harry Howarth, the 26-year-old Engishman, found guilty of taking 13-year old Ethel Manning from Hamilton to old Ethel Manning from Hamilton to Toronto, and there living with her, was remanded for sentence till the close of the sessions. A verdict of guilty of at-tempted seduction was returned by the jury after over an hour's deliberation. The maximum penalty for this is two years with the lashes, while for the ori-ginal charge the maximum penalty is life imprisonment.

CHINESE MAY

FLOCK HERE.

City Officials Fear an Invasion of Laundry Men.

Wondering Now What to Do With the Sandsucker.

More Scarlet Fever and Diptheria

This Week.

Hamilton may shortly be obliged to Chatham, where a $50 license fee is charged to Orientals. Toronto is the latest place to shut down on them. The controllers there yesterday decided to is threatened with an invasion of

The sandsucker has practically com-pleted the work of cleaning out the fil-tering basins, and arrangements will be made next week to take the celebrated made next week to take the celebrated craft to the bay. It will be a ticklish job, as the sucker is hard be hardle in the lake. A tug will have to be chartered, and Myles Hunting will try and pick out a fair day to make sure that Hamilton's "navy" is not pounded to pieces on the lake shore. It is not likely that the sucker will be required to clean out the basins again for some years, and the Fire and Water Committee at its next meeting will try and map out a paln of work for her so that the city will get its money's worth. So far the (Continued on Page 16.)

SMALL THEFTS.

Police Are Busy To-day Hunting For Petty Offenders.

The police are investigating a number of small thefts reported during the past

Mary Honeysett, 15 Jones street, informed the department that $5 was stolen from her handbag yesterday while

Chinese from these other places.

EXPLODED IN MID AIR. Howarth Will be Sentenced at

French Military Dirigible Balloon Wrecked Without Warning

And Four Officers Crushed to Death In Awful Fall.

Was 300 Feet High When the Catastrophe Occured.

Moulins, France, Sept. 25.—The Frence dirigible military balloon Republique ex-ploded in the air five miles from here this morning, and was completely wreck ed. The four men on board were killed. They were Capt. Marchal, Lieut. Chaurand Sub-Lieuts. Vincenot and Reux.

The Republique left Palisse, where she had been engaged in the recent arm had been engaged in the recent army manoeuvges, at 7 o'clock this morning. She was in charge of Capt. Marchal. She passed over Moulins at a quarter before nine at an altitude of 400 feet. She was going at a high rate of speed and apparently was under perfect control. The four officers in the car waved their hands in response to the enthusiastic cheers from the people below them. Nothing pressaged the terrible catastrophe which occurred a few minutes later. Without warning the airship exploded with a loud report. At the time ploded with a loud report. At the time she was sailing at an attitude of more than 300 feet. The wrecked envelope and car fell to the ground, and the four en on board were crushed to death

The dirigible balloon Republique, be The dirigible balloon Republique, belonging to the French War Department, made her initial flight at Soissons on June 24, 1908. On this occasion she carried a cargo of 2,600 pounds, including the crew, and remained in the air 35 minutes. Early this month the Republique was seriously damaged in a windstorm at Nevers, France, on her way to Meudon, where it was intended to take part in the autumn military manoeuvres. Repairs were made later by the military engineers, and the machine was supposed to be as good as new. She took part in the manoeuvres at La Palisse, being attached to the army of the defence, and attracted great attention, having ascer. tached to the army of the defence, and attracted great attention, having ascer-tained and disclosed to the defenders the plan of the enemies' campaign.

MANY GIFTS.

Manufacturers Are Good to the Technical School.

The Hamilton Technical School is in eccipt of several more valuable gifts from manufacturers, namely: Four com plete sets of primary batteries from the Betison Manufacturing Company, of Orange, New Jersey; a fine display of cartridge fuses, open link fuses, fuse blocks, etc., from the Chase Shawmut Company, of Newburyport, Conn.; a very instrucridge fuses, open link fuses, Iuse BIOCKS, etc., from the Chase Shawmut Company, of Newburyport, Conn.; a very instructive sample board of carbon products from the National Carbon Company, of Cleveland, Ohio; a complete set of incandescent light reflectors from Gillander & Co., of Philadelphia, Pa.; and a complete storage Battery Company, of Philadelphia, Pa. These very instructive gifts were secured through the efforts of Mr. Henry N. Nold, instructor in electricity, who while acting as engineer for the Technical School Committee, solicited the manufacturers for such gifts. He states there are more to come.

Do You Give

Your teeth the proper attention? You can use all kinds of dentifrices but if they are not good for the teeth they do more harm than good. Parke's Thymol Tooth Paste is the one dentifrice that keeps the teeth perfect. It is an antiseptic cleaning paste in 15c and 25c tubes. Parke & Parke, druggists.

Genuine Calabash Pipes.

South African calabash pipes, with genuine meerschaum bowls, are light in weight, smoke cool and color well. The best calabash pipes with sterling silver mountings are sold at peace's pipe store,

Overalls

The Trades and Labor Congress demand Lieutenant-Governor Gibson's resignation because "his usefulness is gone," and yet we are told the office is purely ornamental.

The "Immersionists" who expected the earth's crust to break yesterday wore life preservers, of course.

He was a young man of courteous grace. Strength of character shone in his face. He never was known to be in disgrace. But—his trousers bagged at the knee.

Dave Irvine probably realizes that that sort of strike is unprofitable.

A fact young men who frequent lunch counters decry is smaller has become the five-cent piece of pie.

For the benefit of those who don't know: The churches are open to morrow at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Everybody is "The Debtors" at the Grand Opera House next Thursday. Let them come; they don't owe me anything.

If I really took that Trades Congress resolution seriously, I'd almost be afraid to whisper. Will somebody please nudge John Pat-terson, and tell him to hurry up that H., W. & G. Electric Railway.

What! Ottawa afraid of the compet tion of a private electrical company with its "ownership" concern! Wants to bind it not to sell cheaper than it! Well, l

TWO BOYS.

They sat side by side in old Cannon street school back in the middle 70'stwo boys of honest, industrious parents One was a bright, happy, little white haired lad, whom all the boys liked; quick to learn, always ready for fun and a bit of a mischief, but one who would be picked as a likely man of the future. The other was rather slow, but industrious—a happy lad, too, and ready for a bit of sport, but all that he got he had to work for.

By a strange coincidence the Man in Overalls heard from these two boys yes-terday. A court reporter laid on the editor's table an account of the sentence of David Irvine to twelve years' in terday. A court reporter laid on the editor's table an account of the sentencing of David Irvine to twelve years' imprisonment at the very same moment that a letter from his classmate of the old Cannon street school, coming from a far distant city, was spread out before him, and which contained this message:

I have been reading a good deal lately in the Times about Dave Irvine, and memory takes me back some 35 years, to the time when I was a small boy pupil in a basement class room in the old Cannon street school, and Dave Irvine was a classmate. I always think of him as a bright faced, happy boy, with white, wavey hair. I haven't seen him since those early days, but some years ago when I was in Hamilton I came across another old Cannon street schoolmate, and in conversation with him about the boys of auld lang syne, I asked for Dave Irvine, and he told me of his following the way of the transgressor. He said he saw him some months after his last release from prison and Irvine told him that he came out with the determination to live a decent and an honest life, but that he was me than an an incomplete watched his every move, until he felt that there was nothing for him but a return to a life of crime. Poor Dave Irvine! I do not excuse his wrongdoing because of the suspicions of his fellowmen, yet I wonder if he would not have redeemed himself if society had only shown him a little of that sympathy which seldom fails to save."

Davie and Jim sat side by side

At old fashioned desks in a primary school.

Davie was clever and quick to learn; raise the license fee for laundries. At present a $2 tax is imposed, and it is feared that this low fee will be an inducement to Chinese to flock here in view of the fact that they are being driven out of St. Thomas, Kingston and controllers there yesterday decided to refuse to consider any further applications for laundry permits from Chinese. The city officials here doubt if Toronto and these other places can discriminate against naturalized Chinese. They think the laundry men would have the best of it in court. Most of the local Chinese laundry owners have taken out naturalization papers. In the meantime Hamilton is threatened with an invasion of

Jim had a seat on the dunce's stool

Jim was dull, but a plodder hard, And soon earned a way to an honored Chair.

Davie was bright—didn't have to work;
But his heart was light; his face was fair.

Jim is now in a far off land, Leading a flock in the paths of God. Davie goes back to a prison home, Back by the way he so long has trod CLOSE SHAVE.

Millgrove Stage Driver's Horses Ran Away.

James Foster, driver of the Millgrov stage, had a fortunate escape from ser ious injury yesterday afternoon, on York street, just as he was returning home. A wheel of his rig was wrenched off in the street car track, and the horses off in the atreet car track, and the horses taking fright, ran away. Foster was thrown out and dragged along the ground for some distance. Though badly shaken up, he was not seriously injured. He was carried into Carey's drug store and later taken home by Mr. Dan Flatt. John. Carey, of Waterdown, drove the stage home.

THE PIGOTT CASE.

en from her handbag yesterday while she was working in a house on James street south, where a number of men were employed making repairs.

W. H. Yates, contractor, complained that his tool house at the corner of Barton and, Magill streets was broken into last night and a ratchet brace and ten bits stolen.

J. Faskin MacDonald, mountain top, left a lady's coat on the James street incline yesterday, expecting someone to take charge of it when it reached the top. It was stolen before the party it was intended for got there.

The proprietor of the Metropole Hotel, John and King William streets, says a billiard table cover was stolen from there an Thursday night. The long drawn out action of M. A. Pigott, railway contractor, against the Guelph & Goderich Railway stands adjourned, until Oct. 4. Mr. Pigott has been on the stand in all for nearly three weeks. There is a faint suggestion of settlement in the case, but few think it will have that termination.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES

To rent at $2 a year and ipwards for the storing of deeds, bonds, stecks wills, silver and other valuables. TRADERS BANK OF CANADA.

Peary as He Looks To-Day

SNAPSHOT OF COMMANDER ROBT. E. PEARY, TAKEN AT BATTLE HARBOR, LABRADOR, WHILE THE ROOSEVELT WAS STOPPING THERE FOR REPAIRS. PEARY REFUSED TO POSE FOR

SEES ONLY PEACE AND ADVANCEMENT.

British Admiral Sir Edward Seymour Says Conflict Between Nations Hardly Possible.

New York, Sept. 25 .- Admiral Sir Ed- | Hudson-Fulton celebration. The admiral ward Hobart Seymour, who is here in command of the British fleet with the giant dog of war, Inflexible, as his flag-ship, for the Hudson-Fulton celebration, declared yesterday in an interview for the American, that battleships are the greatest safeguards for peace

"The present assemblage of the fleets "The present assemblage of the fleets of all 'nations is a great factor in the promotion of peace," he said. "It gives each nation an opportunity to see for itself how strong and well prepared the other nations are, and that prevents war or thoughts of war. It is not difficult to understand that with the growth of the pairs of the civilized nations the of the navies of the civilized nations the of the navies of the civilized nations the possibilities of war have been so greatly decreased that an armed conflict of any kind seems hardly within the bounds of a possibility. The interests of the civilized world are becoming more and more a possibility. The interests of the civil-ized world are becoming more and more united every day. The great nations are all in harmony. I see nothing but peace and advancement in the future. "There exists an almost unbreakable bond between the civilized nations of the earth."

earth."
Referring to the amicable relations between the Governments of Great Britain and the United States, Admiral Seymour said in a tone of most impressive mour said in a tone of most impressive sincerity:

"We Englishmen and you Americans are just alike under our skins, and we are getting more and more to recognize this fact, every day. I, believe hands clasped across the water is coming to be an assured fact. I know that we will have the state of the sta be an assured fact. I know that we will always stand together."

The English admiral is the direct antithesis of the popular conception of what a British sea dog looks like. He is tall, rather thin and wiry in appearance. His straight carriage and but slightly tinged gray hair belie the three-score tinged gray hair belie the three-score years which he confesses. His forehead is high and intellectual. His eyes are gray and as inscrutable as the sea water. His is a fighting jaw, long and lean, and like the characteristic "bulldog" jaw of the sea fighter.

To all who talked to him Admiral Seymour spoke enthusiastically of his pleasure to be in the United States upon such an epoch-making occasion as the

RUBBERS, TOO.

Shortage of Supply Is Going to Increase Prices.

Don't be surprised when you go to fidd not mention the fact himself, but did not mention the fact himself, but members of his staff showed their high appreciation of the veteran commander by saying that not in 50 years has John Bull sent a full admiral to sea for such

GREAT PAGEANT TO-DAY.

GREAT PAGEANT TO-DAY.

New York, Sept. 23.—The boom of sunrise guns aboard the warships in the North River awoke New York this morning to the first day of the celebration, long planned and long awaited, which honors the deeds of Henry Hudson and Robert Fulton. The river that Hudson found and where Fulton set his steamboat was the place toward which the eyes of five million persons turned to-day for the most impressive pageant that ever floated in the New York harbor.

bor.

Business to-day was comparatively at a standstill. The Stock Exchange was closed and many of the big mercantile establishments did not open. New York abandoned itself without reserve to the spirit of the day.

The day's first spectacle was the assembling of the naval pageant in the upper bay. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the squadron of four American cruisers and The day's first spectacle was the assembling of the naval pageant in the upper bay. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the squadron of four American cruisers and five submarines assigned to escore the Half Moon and the Clermont met in the Kill Von Kull between Staten Island and the New Jersey shore. The Clermont was towed from its night anchorage at Stapleton, Staten Island, to join the Half Moon, which had spent the night off St. George, Staten Island. Then with the escort trailing to rear, the two little craft which epitomized the celebration, cruised along the Brooklyn shore in sight of the spectators that blackened every street and house top in view.

and the Clermont finished their round of the upper bay and sailed into the mouth of the Hudson they fell into line. The assembling of the 500 or more boats that followed Hudson's and Fulton's that followed Hudson's and Futton's craft up the river occupied the whole morning, and it was not until after 1 o'clock that the mass straightened out into something like procession formation.

RECEPTION.

Pastor and Wife.

A reception was tendered to the

CRAP GAME QUEERS HIM.

Henry Burrs Committed For Trial on Perjury Charge.

Arrest Made In Connection With a Recent Stabbing.

Inspector Berlinghoff Has First Case in Court.

The diligence of the police in hunting up the alleged assailant of Joseph Deak, who was severely wounded last Saturday night in a row at 398 Sherman avenue north, and is now in the City Hospi-tal, has resulted in the arrest of John Taglerino, 396 Sherman avenue north. Yesterday afternoon Detectives Bleakley and Coulter went to the man's store and arrested him. This morning he was arraigned and charged with cutting and wounding the said John Deak.

Taglerino, it was stated in court, is a near relative, of Ernest Sparazia, the alleged Black Hand agent, now awaiting trial. Mr. Lewis, for the defence, said his client gave himself up two days ago. "We want a remand," said Chief Smith. "Till when?"

"Thursday."
Defendant was not asked to plead.
Bail was fixed at $500.

It would have been better if Henry Burrs had told the truth and shamed the devil, if his infernal majesty can be shamed, at the time of the trial in the assuult case last May, in which he was mixed up in. He then swore that a game of crap was never played in the Imperial Club, MacNab street north. It lass since been proyen there was, where a game of crap was never played in the Imperial Club, MacNab street north. It has since been proven there was, whereat Burrs was arrested for perjury and again arraigned this morning, and, through his counsel, A. M. Lewis, pleaded not guilty and declined to elect. The court clerk and stenographer read a copy of defendant's evidence, which proved he had sworn that no crap game had been played there.

George Workman, Richard Bennett, Lewis Bennett, jun, and Lewis Bennett, sen, all descendants of Ham, swore that they had seen Burrs playing crap in the club, and each was asked by the Crown Attorney, "If he swore there was no game of crap played there, would it be true?"

Each answered "No, sir."

"If he swore he never saw a game of crap played there, would it be true?"

"No, sir."

"No, sir."

Edward Taylor, of dusky hue, said he saw crap played there, but never saw Burrs play for the simple the (Taylor) was in the club defendant was out of the city.

Burrs is of a night colored complexion, and has only one eye. He was committed for trial.

Fong Lee, of Mongolian origin, charged a neighbor with assault. The case has been repeatedly adjourned owing to the man from the far east failing to appear. However, he showed up this morning immaculately dressed, wearing a pair of gold-rimmed spectacles over his cunning little almond shaped eyes.

Fong told the story of the alleged assault in language which was a mixture of Celestial annd English. "He want shirtee, I want tickee, he jogges me in mouth and knockee out my tooth," said the laundryman, His wife, of Anglo Saxon birth, said her Chinese hubby was assaulted by defendars. A fline of $10 was imposed.

Reuben Rosenhead, 157 James street blackened every street and house top in view.

Meanwhile the rest of the parade was assembling, and when the Half Moon concerning the said he hit it over the head tonce. Inspector Berlinghoff said the once. Inspector Berlinghoff said the horse had many marks, apparently from blows by a whip. The magistrate said it was unnecessary to hit a horse at all. For Rosephead's one cruel blow that he admitted to it cost him $5.

Because he obstructed the street with his wagon R. Stewart, 142 Jackson street east, paid $2. He pleaded guilty.

Lorenzo Talmie, Lynden, was charged with assaulting William Brock, also of Lynden. He was found guilty and the Magistrate said he was convinced prisoner intended doing bodily harm to Brock, and he would not trust himself to sentence him this morning, as it was a very serious charge. He would remained him till Monday for sentence. St. Paul's A. M. E. Welcomes James Livingstone was again remanded, this time till Wednesday, and all the time his whiskers grow, which makes him look more imbecile than ever.

THAT CENSUS.

Go-Carts and Baskets as Numerous as Passengers.

The men who are taking the census of the passenger traffic on the different sections of the routes of the Street Kailway have encountered some amusing experiences. The conductor of a King street cast car, when passing the Street Railway office, where one of the men was 'stationed, in answer to the query, "How many?" answered: "8-8." "What, '88?" said the census taker, incredulously. "No, 8 passengers and 8 laskets," responded the conductor, and the bystanders laughed. Another of the census takers, who was stationed on King street, when he asked the conductor the number, was told "6 passengers and two go-carts." and a suggestion was made that the go-carts be marked down as package freight. How to count the small children is another perplexing question. ing experiences. The conductor of

Don't be surprised when you go to buy fall rubbers if they are 10 or 15 cents dearer than they were last year. Owing to the scarcity in the supply of raw material rubber has advanced from 97 cents to $2.10 a pound, lately. Consequently, wholesale dealers have been required to pay 10 per cent. more for the manufactured goods and of course, the retailers have been charged up accordingly by the wholesale dealers. The reason the raw material has taken such a jump is owing to the drought last season in the Brazil rubber forests. The advance in price is not confined to New York, the receiving port for the bulk of the rubber coming from South American sources, but from Liverpool and Antwerp comes the same story. Large dealers in England evidently could forsecthat there would be a shortage and bought all the rubber they could possibly get. Everything in rubber goods can be expected to be raised 10 to 15 per cent., the local dealers say. A reception was tendered to the Rev. T. H. Henderson and wife upon the occasion of his return as pastor to the occasion of his return as pastor responded in selections by Miss K. Holland and the Eureka Club quartette. Addresses of welcome were read by Mrs. Wm. Taylor, on behalf of the Young People's Society by Mrs. B. A. Hull. Mr. R. Hammond was master of ceremonies. The pastor responded in an affable and interesting manner and expressed the pleasure that it gave him to be the recipient of such corridal greetings. At the close of the reception the ladies served refreshments which were thoroughly enjoyably get. Everything in rubber goods can be expected to be raised 10 to 15 per cent., the local dealers say. GOLDEN JUBILEE. GOLDEN JUBILEE. ANCASTER FAIR.

Mother Alphonsus, St. Joseph's Convent, Park street north, will celebrate her golden jubilee on Monday, the 27th inst. She is a siste of Mrs. M. Arland and also of Mrs. M. D. Healey, of this city, and of Mother Gurtrude, of Mount