Don't Stop My Paper.

Don't stop my paper, printer, Don't strike my name off yet ; You know the times are stringent, And dollars hard to get; But tug a little harder, Is what I mean to do, And scrape the dimes together, Enough for me and you.

I can't afford to stop it ; I find it doesn't pay To do without a paper, However others may. I hate to ask my neighbors fogive me their's on loan They don't just say but mean it. Why don't you have your own?

You can,t tell how we miss it, If it, by any fate, Should happen not to reach us, Or come a little late; Then all is in a hubbub, And things go ail awry, And, printer, if you're married, You know the reason why.

The children want their stories, And vife is anxious too, At first to glance it over. And then to read it through, And 1 to read the leaders. And con the book reviews, And scan the correspondence, And every scrapoof news.

I cannot do without it, It is no use to try. For other people take it, And, printer, so must I; L too, must keep me posted And know what's going on. Or feel and be accounted, A foggy simpleton.

Then take it kindly, printer, If pay be somewhat sow, For cash 1s not so plenty, And wants not few, you know. But I must have my paper, Cost what it may to me, I'd rather dock my sugar, And go with my tea.
