WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1890.

All matter for publication in the HERALD should be in this office by noon on Tuesday.

NOT SINCERE.

We had our doubts about the sincerity of our contemporary, the Patriot, when referring to the reduction of the members of the Legislature, now we are convinced of its insincerity.

CONSERVATIVE VICTORY IN HALDIMAND.

The election for the House of Commons, which took place in Haldimand county on Thursday last, resulted in the return of Dr. Montague, Conservative, by a majority of over two hundred votes.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The election in Northumberland County, N. B., on Thursday last, for the Local House, resulted in the return of Tweed, Surveyor-General in the Blair Government, by about 375 majority.

THE DUAL LANGUAGE QUESTION.

By far the most important as well as the most exciting debate of this session of the Dominion Parliament has been on the question of the dual language in the Northwest Territories.
