 * LAURIER'S WORDS ON NAVAL QUESTION THOSE OF A STATESMAN AND LEADER

 * Canadian Associated Press.
* London, Nov. 18—The Standard says today: "There is statesmanship and true leadership in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's words on the naval question, which should find endorsement in every legislature and assembly in the empire.

Sir William White, speaking on the subject of an imperial navy, said it is recognized generally by Canadians that in the future the navy must be regarded as a common possession of all parts of the empire Referring to the Monroe doctrine, he said his deep conviction is that the strong national feeling in the Dominion revolted from any * * policy involving dependence upon the United States. Loyalty to the * empire is deep seated in Canadian hearts he declared
