LONDON, To-day.

Another suffrage riot occurred in Hyde Park on Sunday. The Men's League for Women's Suffrage had been given permission to hold a meeting. Several prominent workers addressed the crowd of several thousands from a truck, but the crowds kept up a running fire of interruption, shouting, "Go home, make bombs," and making remarks about burning churches. The attempt to blow up St. Paul's. After half hour's endeavour to get a hearing the League gave up and the speakers were about to withdraw when the crowd broke through the ranks of the police, the wagon was overturned and partly wrecked. The police had difficulty in protecting the speakers and eventually had to escort them to the station for protection. Meantime the Suffragettes planted flags in Park Lane and at the side of the Park. The Suffragettes, who had been arrested and started speaking. The men destroyed the flags and jostled a woman until the police rescued her. Rev. Truscott, Vicar of St. Catherine's, Hatching, destroyed by fire, recently held services in a public hall on Sunday and spoke lengthily regarding the fire. He said: "There is no use to talk to me about flashes of lightning or gas. Some persons did this with malicious intent." He said he had received hundreds of letters, some of them from suffragettes, who repudiated such dastardly acts. A fire at a large unoccupied house at Beckenham, outside of London, last evening, was extinguished after three hours. The fire is attributed to the Suffragettes. Firemen were alarmed at finding a bulky parcel in one of the burning rooms. They thought it contained a bomb, but the examination revealed it was merely a cylinder.

PORT WILLIAM, To-day.
At six o'clock last evening a car operated by strike breakers ran off the track at McLavis and Simpson Streets. The windows were broken and the car was otherwise damaged. About two hours later a mob of foreigners rushed the police station and attempted to free Peter Laidlaw, a Hungarian, who had been arrested. The police fired a volley over their heads, they came on. Mike Maraak was killed by the volley which followed and John Wulke badly wounded. The mob then retired. It was not properly a street riot, as there were no strikers concerned, but the affair arose out of the strike which began here on Saturday morning. The mob consisted of foreigners and were worked up to frenzy by agitators.

The American Secretary of State and the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs were asked to transmit invitations to other governments.

Woman Master Mosaic Work.

Miss Gertrude Martin Claims to be Only One in England.

London, May 1.—High above the dim precincts of Westminster Cathedral, her ivory platform surrounded by canvas, an accomplished lady is completing some beautiful mosaics. The work is of especial beauty; but it possesses an additional interest; inasmuch as the lady, Miss Gertrude Martin, claims to be the only woman master mosaic-worker in this country.

Miss Martin is engaged on designs by Mr. Anning Bell, representing Daniel, Ezekiel, Isaiah and Jeremiah. Each cartoon occupies a niche. The panel of the Virgin and Child behind the altar in the Lady-chapel has just been completed, and the effect of the figures, seen from a distance, is that of arresting beauty.

The work is particularly exacting, trying to the eyesight, and necessitates the ability to judge what will be the effect from a distance of the tesserae upon which one is working.

The tracing of the cartoon on the wall is preceded by an elaborate treatment in which special cements are used, and the worker needs to be continually clipping the mosaic material in order that it shall fill its allotted space and no more.

WASHINGTON, To-day.
Britain and the States begin to clean the diplomatic slate to-morrow when the international tribunal of arbitration of outstanding pecuniary claims between the two nations holds its first meeting under the Presidency of Henry Fromagot, of France. The Tribunal will judicially settle claims of private persons of the two nations, some of them dating back to the war of 1812. The settlement of accumulated cases will relieve the American State Department and the British Foreign Office of the necessity of presenting demands which each constantly has been urged to press upon the other. In behalf of its national claims listed for hearing at the opening session are chiefly those in favor of or against Canada. American claims aggregate $4,330,000. British, $2,268,000.

LONDON, To-day.
The Turkish delegates have arrived in London for the Peace Conference. Despatches from Sofia indicate that the Greek Government is trying to delay the conclusion of peace by refusing to accept the terms of a draft treaty drawn up by the Ambassadorial Conference. The Bulgarian Government, however, has notified Greece of its determination to permit no further delay in signing the Peace Treaty. Friction between Bulgaria and Greece still menaces the situation. The mixed commission, appointed by the two governments with the object of reconciling the rival claims over disputed towns and territories in Macedonia but failed to reach an agreement. Two sets of representatives have arrived absolutely at opposite and irreconcilable conclusions.

MADRID, To-day.
The Spanish people are proud of King Alfonso's personal popularity in France and greet the Sovereign on his return from Paris with unusual enthusiasm. Women strewed flowers in the King's path between the station and the palace. All the government and diplomatic dignitaries gathered at the station, and the Queen and Queen mother were there to welcome the King on his safe return.

MONTREAL, To-day.
A collision with an iceberg in a dense fog was the experience of the Chiltern Range while on a voyage from Hull to Montreal. Her bow plates were badly dented by the glancing blow. She struck the berg striking away seaward. The escape of the vessel, comparatively uninjured, seems to have been nothing short of miraculous.

ROME, To-day.
At an explosion at the Marazzi fire works factory, one man, three women and a child were burned in the ruins. Mayor Nathan and Cardinal Merry Del Val, Papal Secretary of State, who happened to be passing, ran to the scene of the explosion and gave what assistance they could.

A Field of Labor.

"If you cannot in the harvest gather up the richest sheaves, Many a grain, both rich and golden, which the careless reaper leaves. You can glean among the briers, growing rank against the wall. And it may be that the shadows hide the heaviest wheat of all."

If you have not gold and silver ready at command, If you cannot toward the needy reach an ever open hand, You can visit the afflicted, o'er the erring you can weep; You can be a true disciple sitting at the Master's feet.

"Do not, then, stand idly waiting for some nobler work to do; For your heavenly Father's glory, ever yours, ever true, Go and toil in any vineyard, work in patience and in prayer; If you want a field of labor, you can find it anywhere."

A Risky Voyage.

Skipper Thomas Cull, with 6 men, arrived here Saturday in an ordinary fishing skiff from Bay de Verde voyaging a distance of over 36 miles. The proceeding was a most risky one, and the boat had a storm of N. W. wind and heavy sea all the way along. The men were constantly kept bailing water out of her, as sprays came on board the whole time. The boat was picked up by the Ingraham four miles from the Narrows. Several times on the run the daring voyagers were in great peril and were in danger of being swamped.
