His Excellency Inspects City Brigades.

His Excellency Sir C. Alexander Harris, accompanied by Lt.-Col. Knex-Niven inspected the C.L.B., C.C.C. and Newfoundland Highlanders at the tenor of the editorial in the Advocate, under the heading "A Stinging Rebuke," the criticisms that have appeared in the press anent Mr. Coaker and his political escapades have struck home, and, at length, the President and Manager of the Fishermen's Union has commenced to recognize the truism that responsibility walks hand in hand with capacity and power. It seems to have been brought home to him that he is not only a politician, but the paid servant of "23,000 toilers," four thousand of whom have "their savings to the amount of Four hundred thousand Dollars" invested in a business of the lade accommendation in the Advocate, Newfoundland Highlanders at the C.L.B.
